OF THE WORLDWIDE CHURCH OF GOD

PASADENA, CALIFORNIA

VOL. VIII, NO. 7

Mr. Armstrong's letter on Feast

The following letter from Pastor General Herbert W Armstrong, dated March 21, was sent to United States members to de-scribe plans for the 1980 Feast of Tabernacles. It is reprinted here for the benefit of Church members worldwide

D^{ear} brethren of God's Church:

Now we are enthusiastically looking toward the first Feast of Tabernacles in the NEW DECADE OF THE 1980s! It's a sobering thing to bear in mind that this could well be the very last decade in which we may attend this wonderful Festival prior to Christ's coming in supreme POWER and GLORY to establish the KINGDOM OF GOD!

In that regard think how IMPORTANT this Festival is! After the return of KING of kings Jesus Christ, "It shall come to pass, that every one ... shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles'' (Zechariah 14:16). And there shall be plagues and severe punishments on nations that neglect or refuse to attend! Of course that is speaking of MORTAL people then left alive - not of Christ's saints who then will be IMMORTAL and in the very Family of God.

But you and I are, now, still mortal - and the above scripture shows us HOW VERY SERIOUS IN GOD'S EYES it is that we attend this wonderful Feast this year. For we MAY be attending it as IMMORTAL-BORN children of God before this present decade is out! That certainly is a likely possibility.

Brethren, there have been reasons for believing God may have held up — slowed down — delayed — the march of world events during the decade of the 1970s. But there are a number of signs in world events since this decade of the '80s began to indicate God may well now be SPEEDING UP world events cutting short the progress of events in this world of Satan's

We have undoubtedly entered the most EXPLOSIVE decade in the history of man. But it is possible that God will cut short the days of great tribulation ahead and bring us into the WONDERFUL and GLORIOUS Kingdom of God before this decade is out. Again, remember, I am not setting dates! Jesus said no man will know the day or the hour. But he did say we may know by world events when it is near - even at the door!

This will be my 54th year of keeping the annual fall Holy Days. We did not come to realize the meaning and need to keep the entire Feast of Tabernacles until 1945, though my wife and I began keeping the annual Sabbaths in 1927.

Today the Worldwide Church of God Feast of Tabernacles is the largest annual assembly, convention or Festival held on the face of the earth! God has surely blessed us in this!

The Feast of Tabernacles pictures to us year after year the GLORIOUS thousand years just shortly ahead now of wORLD PEACE, HAPPINESS AND OPPOR-TUNITY FOR ETERNAL SALVA-TION FOR ALL NOT PREVIOUSLY CALLED! It will be a world WITHOUT SATAN! It will be a world WITH JESUS CHRIST RUL-ING WITH LOVE!

It is a time for us to get away from the dreary routine of daily life in Satan's world and enjoy eight wonderful days with breth ren in Christ and their families! It is the only time in the year that God provides a time when we may get away and rest from our daily regular duties - to be with BRETHREN IN CHRIST to worship Him and look FORWARD to His UTOPIA!

This year we shall have 21 Festival sites. Due to gasoline prices and inflation, no one will need to travel more than 300 miles. However, transfers will be avail-(See MR. ARMSTRONG'S, page 8)

TREASURER MEETS PRESIDENT - Church treasurer Stanley R. Rader is greeted by Philippines President Ferdinand E. Marcos, First Lady Imelda Marcos and the Minister of Labor. Mr. Rader was the special guest of the president at an Army Day celebration March 22 in Manila.

MANILA, Philippines - Attend-ing the 83rd annual Army Day celebration as special guest of Philippines President Ferdinand E. Marcos Church treasurer Stanley R. Rader was introduced by the president to the Philippine Minister of Defense, the Deputy Minister of Defense, the Deputy Foreign Minister, the Armed Forces Chief of Staff and the Commander of the Army, according to the March 28 Pastor General's Report

The 2¹/₂-hour ceremony and parade at the Bonefan Army base March 22 was broadcast on the Philippines television network, including Mr. Rader's reception by the president. At the conclusion of the celebration, the president and First Lady Imelda Marcos invited Mr. Rader to accompany them to a buffet luncheon at the base's officers' club. More than 300 guests attended the buffet, including the Filipino diplomatic corps, government ministers and leading members of Filipino society.

During the luncheon, the Pastor General's Report stated that Mr. Rader was able to converse with President Marcos in the company of leading government officials. Mr. Rader discussed plans for future articles dealing with the Philippines in both Quest/80 and The Plain Truth, the Ambassador International Cultural Foundation's (AICF) new cooperative effort with the Filipino people and government through their Ministry of Labor and its Manpower Institute.

The president and Mr. Rader also spoke of a joint effort between the AICF's Performing Arts program and the Philippines Performing Arts Center, which is spearheaded by the first lady. Although the president wished that Mr. Rader stay for further discussion, previous engagements in Tokyo prevented him from doing so. President Marcos and Mr. Rader made arrangements for Mr. Rader to meet with First Lady Imelda Marcos and other government officials upon his return March

21 U.S. FESTIVAL SITES

We are now planning for 21 Festival sites in the continental United States and Hawaii. Pastor General Herbert W. Armstrong has authorized the expansion of the Feast sites to accommodate the needs of Church brethren.

After considering the impact of spiraling inflation, fuel shortages and escalating costs, Mr. Amrstrong wants to reduce the travel costs for our Church membership in the United States. Inflation has eroded away our purchasing power in the realm of fuel, food and lodging to such an extent that closer sites are imperative.

closer sites are imperative. Mr. Armstrong is concerned that all Church members attend the Feast of Tabernacles in 1980, and these additional sites will make it possible. Some of the more desirable Festival sites are not available for three to five years hence because of prior bookings by other conventions. However, we will continue to strive to provide you with Feast sites that satisfy the needs of the contract. the Church.

The sites for this year are:

In the March 25 meeting, Mr. Rader stated in a report from Manila that, "The first lady and I discussed at great length the Church, its great commission, its goals and objectives in the Philippines and elsewhere, as well as the foundation.'

After a discussion concerning a cooperative effort between the AICF and the Philippines Performing Arts Center, Mr. Rader left Mrs. Marcos information about the Worldwide Church of God and the AICF, including copies of Pastor General Herbert W. Armstrong's books The Incredible Human Potential and Tomorrow - What It Will Be Like.

According to the Pastor General's Report, Mr. Rader was also interviewed on a Filipino television station the morning of March 21, which was excerpted on all the evening news broadcasts of other Philippine stations. The Philippines' major newspaper. The Bulletin, carried a feature on Mr. Rader's visit. The article spoke about the activities of the AICF and mentioned the Worldwide Church of God in a quote from Mr. Rader.

Mr. Rader also received a key to the city of Manila from the mayor, and the mayor is planning a banquet in honor of the AICF when Mr. Rader and his entourage return in May.

Also in the report from Manila, Mr. Rader stated: "Most impor-tantly, however, I have made pre-(See TREASURER, page 8)

Behind the Iran hostage crisis to this outrage committed by a thirdrate power against allegedly the most nowerful nation on earth. Carter deprived himself of any serious leverage

PASADENA - For more than 150 days American citizens have been held captive in the U.S. Embassy in Tehran, Iran. Every effort to secure their peaceful release has failed — abysmally. A United Nations condemnation accomplished nothing, as did an appeal to the World Court in The Hague, Nether-lands. A U.N. "commission of in-quiry" literally got no place, its members not even being permitted to interview the captives.

The militants holding the hostages have repeatedly ignored the "moder-ate" political leaders supposedly in charge of the chaotic government. The Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini - the only real power in Iran --upsets every "breakthrough" to a negotiated settlement with savage denunciations of U.S. foreign policy.

New humiliation

The latest wrinkle in the sordid affair is an "offer" on the part of Iran's "moderate" President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr promising not release of the captives, but merely their transfer into government hands in return for a U.S. pledge not to make "any propaganda, any claim, any speeches or any provocations over the hostages until the Parliament is formed and makes a decision.

Even the Los Angeles, Calif., Times, hardly noted for hard-hitting editorials, nevertheless remarked This effort to order the conduct of American policy is so outrageous that the best response would be for the Carter Administration simply to ignore it."

Nevertheless, the next day the White House responded that it would "continue to be restrained in our words and actions."

Previous efforts to win freedom for the kidnapped Americans, said the Times, have not done a visible iota of good, "nor is there any reason to think that an Iranian president, who has proved consistently incapable of delivering on his solemn promises, will be able to do so in the future if only there is one more American concession, one more example of

Just one more thing

"But it was only a little white lie

- what's wrong with that?" How many times have you heard these words or perhaps even said them yourself to justify a "small' falsehood?

I knew a compulsive liar once. As a child, his parents were hard on him and never allowed him to have any of his schoolmates over to his home. At some point in his young life he discovered that he could get attention and admiration from his peers by telling tall tales about the vast number o toys he had, things he had done, food he had eaten, money he had, con-quests he had made. He didn't worry about being found out because none of his friends could check up on him.

The young man grew up living and breathing lies. His whole being, his whole personality revolved around those increasingly bigger falsehoods. He created a world around him for all of his friends to look upon with envy, but never see through. He lived a double life — the unfortunate emptiness of his reality and the plush dream world of his lies.

This young man has not yet overcome his problem. Constantly jug-gling to fit everything together, his drive in life is to impress new people with his lies about himself, then drop them when he fears they may crack his facade. His little lies, one built on another, completely engulf him. One of his favorite sayings is, "Would I lie to you?" As Christians can we afford to treat lightly the subject of lying, no matter how small, "innocent" or jus-tified it may seem?

God is incredibly concerned with the truth. Truth and the search for truth is one of the most important facets of Christian life. Throughout the Bible God condemns liars and lovers of a lie. See Proverbs 19:9. As Christians we must be bearers of the truth, not hot-air balloons filled with empty words and lies.

The lying cycle is so easy to slip into, and the consequential damage sometimes makes it necessary that God Himself help us. Lying may hurt our conscience at first, but it is one of the easiest things in the world for bruised consciences to become calloused. And once lost, it's hard to recover that tender sensitivity to sin that we should have. What about the whole category of "small" lies — white lies, half-truths, insincerity, exaggerations and so on? Are they not fathered by the same being who tried to destroy Adam's and Eve's chance to become Gods?

One little lie told and it is easier to tell the next. The habit is so easy and so seemingly innocuous to slip into, but nothing is more devastating to interpersonal relationships. As Christians, are we aware that throughout each day there is a potential for us to lie? Sometimes a white lie may slip by at work, or we may lie to a child without thinking seriously about it. In families, par ents sometimes ask their children to lie for them. For example, they may ask them to answer the telephone and say that the mother or father is not at home. That's bewildering for the children.

Some may argue that they are telling a falsehood in order to be helpful to others. For example, they may say that they deceive a sick person to shield that individual from knowl-edge of the seriousness of their illness, or they may say that they are lying to a child to protect the youngster from frightening news. Remember the far-reaching conse quences of a few little white lies recorded in the Bible. Abraham's twice-told lie about Sarah being his sister brought some pretty serious repercussions in quite a number of people's lives (Genesis 12:11-17, 20:2-7). And she was his half-sister. Have you ever told a lie by not in-cluding all the pertinent facts?

And God thought it was impor-tant enough to reprimand Sarah when she lied about laughing at the idea that she could bear a child in her old age (Genesis 18:10-16). Have you ever told a lie out of embarrassment? Telling a white lie is a false state-ment made to another person with the intention to mislead. God hates that and so should we as Christians.

White lies are shameful. They also are unnecessary. An alternative is available — the truth. Let's say someone gives you a gift that you aren't able to use. Instead of telling them how useful it is, why not simply thank them for the kindness of their gift? That way you can be both kind and polite and at the same time tell the truth.

Truth is the most important thing for a Christian to seek, know and practice. God is the Author of truth He helps us overcome our mistakes

We need to daily remember Paul's exhortation in Colossians 3:9, "Lie not one to another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his deeds self-abnegation, one more retreat from honor and principle.

Strive diligently to eliminate "white lies" from your Christian liv-ing. Let's learn to love the truth and let the truth live in us.

"Meet my condition, says Bani-Sadr, do nothing and say nothing about Iran until the end of June and maybe --- just maybe --- the hostages will eventually have an easier time of it... Bani-Sadr is worried about his political survival. The United States has more important things to be concerned with. National self-respect is one of them."

Amazingly, President Jimmy Carter hailed Mr. Bani-Sadr's flimsy offer as "a positive step," enough for him to once again postpone leveling further economic sanctions against the Iranian government.

Why is the President popular?

Perhaps the biggest paradox in the Iranian crisis is the continuing popu-larity of Mr. Carter. The President has even refused to hit the campaign trail, explaining that his absence is required by his round-the-clock efforts to bring back the prisoners. It would be unthinkable, he says, to engage in purely partisan politics at this moment.

Political scientist Hans J. Morgenthau, in an essay written for the Los Angeles Times, March 30, noted what he called "the apparent paradox of President Carter emerging from the primaries as almost unbeatable for the Democratic nomination while the United States under his leadership has suffered a string of humiliating defeats in its relations with other nations. The most spectacular of these defeats is, of course, the continuing captivity of 50 American hostages in Iran.

"By forswearing from the outset any form of violence in the response

some American lives. "Nevertheless, the President, by putting the emphasis on saving 50 American lives by peaceful means,

President Woodrow Wilson was al-

'Paratrooper' gives inside look at ministerial weekend travels

By John Halford PASADENA — In an effort to keep God's Church informed and up to date on recent Church events, Pas tor General Herbert W. Armstrong directed that the Work's G-II jet be used to take ministers and Pasa-dena personnel out to local church

As the trips progressed in the past few months, a real camaraderie has developed between the ministers and men traveling, and various amusing men traveling, and various anisoing stories have begun to circulate about the trips. In fact, at one point the men on the trips began to be known as "Mr. Armstrong's paratroopers." On our latest trip we kept a diary of sorts to give you an inside look of one of the visits.

Friday, March 21, 8:22 a.m., Pacific Standard Time: Ministers and assigned personnel climb aboard a van in front of the Hall of Administration on the Ambassador College campus for the trip to the Burbank, campus for the trip to the Burbank, Calif., airport. Traveling on the G-II this weekend are Dean Blackwell, Joe Tkach, Raymond McNair, Dr. William (bet-ter known as "Doc") Kessler, Leroy Neff, Dick Ames, Kevin and Aaron Dean, Curtis May, Joe Kotora, Robin Webber, Wes White, Mike Feazell and myself. At the last min-ute, we learn that Mr. Neff is ill and ute, we learn that Mr. Neff is ill and Richard Rice is going to take his place for the trip. 8:53 a.m.: Arrive at Burbank. The G-II is waiting and Captain Ed Black and copilot Ken Hopke have the jet engines running. Within three minutes of boarding the aircraft we are airborne and swinging over the nountains toward our first stop Lubbock, Tex.

Joe Tkach, Dick Ames, Raymond McNair and Curtis May are already engrossed in a card game. Suddenly, Captain Black comes on the intercom. We have to return to Burbank two gauges that monitor the engines are malfunctioning. But, five minutes later the problem seems to resolve itself, so we turn around and once again head toward Texas. 12:58 p.m., Central Time: Land at Lubbock. Dean Blackwell and Kevin Dean are met by local pastor Keith Walden. Wes White's wife Linda joins us. She had flown to Lubbock the day before, since the G-II was full coming out of Burbank. Wives are welcome on these trips, but only if there is room on the jet. Priority must go to the men who do the speaking.

1:47 p.m.: Land at Austin, Tex., three minutes ahead of schedule. Dick Ames and Robin Webber leave

1:58 p.m.: Enroute again. Joe Kotora and Aaron Dean join the card game.

2:35 p.m.: Approaching Dallas we get a bird's-eye view of the Cow-boys' [U.S. professional football team] football stadium. Seconds be fore we touch down at Love Field, Captain Black revs the engines and puts the nose up in an emergency aborted landing. Apparently a small plane is on the runway. Thanks to the quick reactions of our pilots there is no problem, but Captain Black lets the control tower know that he didn't especially appreciate the situation. It's a sober reminder for us not to take safety for granted. We circle the field and come in on a different runway.

2:54 p.m.: Take off from Dallas and head for Longview, Tex. Messrs. McNair, Kessler, Kotora and May left the plane at Dallas, so the plane is much emptier now. It practically leaps into the air after a short takeoff run. The G-II has the same engines as some commercial airplanes that carry 60-70 passengers, so there is plenty of reserve power. In fact, the plane has never flown at full throttle, as it might not be able to stand the strain. One can

Church pastor Briscoe Ellett unex-pectedly had to go out of town for a funeral, we are met by deacon Boris Martin and his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are able to get a quick look at the inside of the G-II before Captain Black finally battens down the hatches. They are thrilled. It is not only that it is a very beautiful airplane — it is what it means to those who have their hearts in God's Work. We spend the evening at the Ellett's house relaxing and preparing for tomorrow

Saturday, March 22, 9 am Church services at Monroe. The Monroe church is one of the few congregations that own their meeting hall. They were able to purchase a half-completed country club that was in financial difficulties. We show the Church vs. State film, and I give a sermon on unity in God's Church. Briscoe and Donna Ellett are used to a two-hour drive between the churches, but today they are travel-ing in style. We head back to the Monroe airport where the G-II is waiting with its engines running.

1:53 p.m.: We land at Alexandria 3:09 p.m.: Services start — a few minutes late since we had trouble with the projector for the Church vs. State film (Murphy's law again).

6:33 p.m.: Services and the question-and-answer period are over. Once again, everyone seems enthusiastic and positive. It is the proverbial "shirt-tail shoot" to the plane, which is scheduled to take off at 7 p.m.

7:15 p.m.: Take off from Monroe airport. Aaron (who with his brother Kevin also serve as the stewards aboard the G-II) begins to prepare a meal for the first few men we pick

Aaron explains that they could use TV din-ners, but since Mr. Armstrong and his staff spend so much time traveling, why not prepare proper nourish-ing food? It takes time and organization, but it's worth it. 7:34 p.m.: Land at Shreveport to pick up Richard Rice and Wes White. We are a bit late, and Captain Black doesn't like being behind schedule. We land in a hurry — the chicken a'la king nearly goes into orbit

Feast, it is equally IMPORTANT that all shall have been saving the SECOND TITHE to pay your own expenses and enjoyment at the Festival. Of course part of that expense is rental of auditoriums or halls or convention centers and other expenses the Church must pay. So, as always, BE SURE TO SEND IN A TITHE OF YOUR ENTIRE YEAR'S SECOND TITHE BY RE-TURN MAIL. Mark or list it separate from your regular first tithe or offering. And please do not forget the BUILDING FUND. Although we did have 100 percent financing on the Auditorium and other headquarters buildings, that came in the form of large multimillion-dollar loans from major insurance companies. Of course much of the campus property is all paid out now, but pay-ments are still having to be made month by month on the Auditorium, Hall of Administration, etc. So REMEMBER the spe-cial building fund, please. Remember we have been able to use and enjoy these fine buildings for a number of years before we have had to pay out these mortgages by which they were financed. And the interest we are paying is the rate that was in effect before we built - now some years ago and much lower than now!

What a blessing from God that we have not had to borrow regularly at the banks during all last year and so far this year. Formerly we had to borrow a million dollars in January and pay back out of Passover special offerings. Then we had to borrow another million in July to be paid back from the Fall Festival offerings. Now loan rates to largest bank customers are up to 19 percent! What a blessing we have not had to pay that last year or so far this!

Nothing will be sold at the Feast sites. Nothing will be charged. I may have a new book ready, depending on my own very busy work load. There will be a special issue of The Good News for the Feast instead of the past brochures. I have never liked the commercial advertising in the Feast brochures, and we will handle it

My new office and broadcasting studio here in Tucson is almost completed. I shall try, at age 88, to continue the executive management and oversight of the entire worldwide Work, beside all the volume of writing I am doing, and now will add six half-hour television programs a week and seven half-hour radio programs a week.

Beside all that I am still traveling in taking the true Gospel to many centers around the world. I shall be leaving April 3 to speak to several churches at Chicago, Ill., and April 6 I shall fly on overseas for visits with President Anwar Sadat of Egypt and Prime Minister Menachem Begin at Jerusalem - provided they are not then meeting with President Jimmy Carter at Camp David. It was announced last night that the President has invited them both, and they have accepted.

In May my meeting with lead-ers of the Soviet Union at the Kremlin is still on schedule. As long as President Carter leaves the door open, I shall go. I have been warmly invited, and if Jesus Christ keeps that door open I shall go right through it! So, I have my work cut out for me. It's a good thing I keep getting YOUNGER every month and every year, instead of being senile and feebleminded as enemies keep shouting!

I wish you all the best wishes for a solemn Passover and a joyous Festival of Unleavened Bread
