

Rema source e seever e seever 1-2510-02211-

UF INE WURLDWIDE CHURCH OF GOD PASADENA, CALIF.

VOL. IV, NO. 10

11 90216

ç

TENK

Festival applications rolling in

BIG SANDY - The Festival Office here is "really gearing up" to handle its annual task of processing 30,000 applications and making housing arrangements for an esti-mated 80,000 persons who will attend the 1976 Feast of Tabemacles.

According to Norma Davis, the office's receptionist-secretary, who has helped handle applications for six years, the applications as of May 7 were being returned here at the rate of "close to a hundred or more" per day per major U.S. Festival site

She said applications were mailed to members April 16 to 20.

"Almost immediately we began getting them back in the mail," she said

Now the race is on. The Festival Office state asked the WN to remind readers that all applications should be returned to the office here no later than June 1 and pointed out that the sooner each member returns his application the better his chances are of receiving the requested accommodations

The same holds true with transfer requests

Sign Your Check

Donna Eddy, a Festival Office FLOOD OF MAIL - Festival Of ce staffer Norma Davis sur veys the moming's mail, a stack of Festival applications. [Photo by John Robinson

Worldwide conference nears; senior pastors being selected

PASADENA Plans for a conference of ministers from around the world to be held here May 18, 19 and 20 are nearing completion, as well as plans for a preconference meeting May 17 of all U.S. area coordinators and the newly appointed senior pastors, according to Ronald Dart, vice president for pastoral administration.

Mr. Dart said the selection of "approximately 40" senior pastors 98 percent complete," with the is official list of appointments to be released early the week of May 10. The senior pastors will be notified of their selection through their area coordinators.

Mr. Dart said "a lot of hard work" went into the selection process and suggestions were sought from as many people as possible. "We are trying to get the best possible. We are trying to get the best possible use of manpower," he said, adding that Garner Ted Armstrong has been 'heavily involved'' in all selections. "It has been a real plus to have Mr. Armstrong so deeply involved. He has been able to go over every appointment personally."

A preliminary conference and related activity schedule printed in the May 4 Bulletin included schedul-

Monday, May 17: A morning meeting of area coordinators followed by a meeting of the coor-dinators and senior pastors; Ambas-sador College, Pasadena, com-mencement that afternoon and a dinner that evening for area coordinators

• Tuesday, May 18: General

morning session for all ministers attending to be sonducted by Herbert W. Armstrong and Stanley Rader, followed by an afternoon general session with Gamer Ted Armstrong; also in the afternoon session a "doctrinal-overview" session to be conducted by Gamer Ted Armstrong, Ronald Dart and Robert Kuhn

• Wednesday, May 19: General morning session to be conducted by Gamer Ted Armstrong followed by a presentation on the "work of the ministry" by Ronald Dart; general (See CONFERENCE, page 7)

Mr. Armstrong to visit South America, Africa

PASADENA Herbert Armstrong returned here April 29 after what Stanley R. Rader, vice president for financial affairs and planning for the Work, described as a "very successful trip" that included the observance of the Passover and the Days of Unleavened Bread in Israel, followed by a visit to Rome.

In Israel Mr. Armstrong met with Mayor Teddy Kollek of Jerusalem others active in Israeli public life, Mr. Rader said. Mr. Armstrong then visited Rome, which is now receiving world attention because of the Communist Party's expected entry into the Italian government in 's June elections Italy

Mr. Armstrong will remain in Pasadena until graduation ceremonies at Ambassador College May 17 but will depart shortly thereafter for "important commitments" that include semiofficial visits to Korea, Oman and Kuwait and a round of activities in South Africa that are to culminate in a campaign in Johannesburg June 20 and 21, Mr. Rader bies.

During his stay in South Africa Mr. Armstrong also plans to visit the neighboring areas of South-West Africa and Rhodesia.

"Circumstances permitting, it is tentatively planned that we will remain following the campaign to visit other areas increasingly in the news," Mr. Rader said. "For example, between June 24 and July 6 there is the annual conference of the Organization of African States (OAU) taking place in Mauritius, and we have tentative visits planned in Zambia and several other black-African countries.

Mr. Rader said Mr. Armstrong plans to spend July 4 in Israel. Also scheduled for the near future are a campaign in Trinidad and visits to Caracas, Venezuela, and Rio de Janiero, Brazil, tentatively Janiero, Brazil, tentatively scheduled for late July, and "royal visits" set for August in Denmark, Sweden and possibly Norway.

employee five years, reminded applicants to be careful in completing their applications. She said many brethren forget to sign their checks send too much money or not enough, and some even forget to fill out their applications. "We get a few envelopes which contain a deposit check and a blank application." she said.

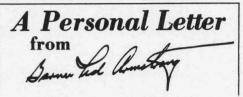

(Note the box on page 8 that lists frequent errors made on applications.)

Jack McKinney, assistant Festival director and the one who supervises the Festival-housing requests, said the key in completing applications is to make your wishes known.

MAY 10, 1976

'Just tell us what you want," he said. "We prefer members to be more specific in their requests and ask that they use the comments section of their applications. Some feel they need to call us on the telephone to explain their needs. During the hectic months immediately prior to the Festival we often find that a telephone call may not get the attention that a clearly cated preference on an applicaindi tion will

Mr. McKinney said it is helpful for members to indicate their feelings (See FESTIVAL, page 8)

Dear brechren in Christ:

GREETINGS! It's a beautiful, sunny, summery day [May 8] here in Pasadena, where yesterday saw the last day of classes for the 1975-76 year!

Though it's almost impossible to believe, summer is just around the corner, the college year has already come to a close, and I will be en route within a matter of a few days to Big Sandy for commencement exercises there, and then return to Pasadena on the following Sunday, prior to the commencement exercises here at Ambassador College, Pasadena, and prior to the beginning of our international ministerial conference.

As you all know, resulting from needed restructuring in the ministry (previously announced at some length), I had to decide to delay the ministerial conference for a short while, but plans have been proceed ing for the conduct of an in-depth ministerial conference beginning on the Tuesday following commence-ment on Monday, May 17, at headquarters.

This year, all pastors of churches in the United States and many others from around the world are being brought to the conference, with associate and assistant pastors in-vited to come, as well as all local elders whether or not in the employ of the Church.

We're expecting in the neighbor-hood of 300 men and, of course, in those cases where it is possible and the families can afford it, their wives to be at headquarters, arriving this next Sunday and Monday morning [May 16 and 17].

Honorary Degree

Ambassador College will grant its very first honorary doctorate at commencement exercises in Big Sandy! Honored will be Edwin Earl Fowler, administrative vice president of Tyler Junior College. (Tyler Junior College is a highly regarded school about 25 miles southwest of the Big Sandy campus.)

Mr. Fowler will be presented the degree doctor of laws, honoris causa, during the commencement exercise.

We feel Mr. Fowler, who has been with the Tyler college for almost 30 years, is an outstanding educator and community leader, and we are pleased to honor him in this way. Thus, even as the founder and chancellor of Ambassador College, Herbert W. Armstrong, has been granted honorary doctorates by other universities. Ambassador now grants its own first honorary doctor's degree.

More Videotaping

Today, the Sabbath, I am once again to speak at the headquarters afternoon services and videotape my sermon for future release on television and radio

I hope all of you brethren have been able to hear some of the latest radio broadcasts I have been making, and, even though the audio quality is not what I would wish (there seems to be, depending upon the auditorium in which it was taped, a little bit too much feedback and a booming sound because of reverberation), I believe the content is very powerful and is very much a part of the new thrust in God's Work I announced some months ago in my "state-of-themessage.

We have completed our television programs for the current season by the use of this latest program of videotaping my sermons before a live audience, and today's sermon will form part of the first programs to be (See PERSONAL, page 7)

Australia airs telecast for first time

BURLEIGH HEADS, Australia Australia's first Garner Ted Armstrong telecast was aired on a Sydney television station May 2.

was almost 20 years to the · · Te week from the date of the first World Tomorrow [radio] program in Aus-tralia in 1956," said John A. Halford, director of Plain Truth lectures at the Work's office here. 'The first program of the 13-week series, 'The Laser,' was seen by an estimated 15,000 to 20,000 people in the Sydney area."

Until recently finances and technology have kept the TV program out (See AUSTRALIA, page 16)

"etters TO THE EDITOR

Unleavened comments

Unleavened comments I'm enclosing a check for my renewal to the News and wish to express my thanks for the Unleavened Bread recipes that were in my past News [March 29]. I am keeping and putting most of them on cards for my recipe files. Sorry I neglected to put my name on my Hoc Cake (bread) recipe. Guess I ran out of room on wu card of room on my card.

of room on my card. The newspaper keeps me in touch with Church of God news that I'm not able to get out and hear otherwise. The nearest church is miles away from my neighbor-hood and I no longer get around far alone. Lois White Palos Verdes Estates, Calif.

* * *

★ ★ ★ Regarding the March 29 WN pull-out section on unleavened dishes, I have had numerous questions in my mind as to the validity of some of the recipes in reference to being "truly" unleavened. I an a university student studying dietetics and food administration and have worked with different leavening methods. It became apparent to me while reading over the recipes that many avid cooks must not be aware that leavening is not simply formed through the biological production of carbon dioxide (baking production of carbon dioxide (baking soda, baking powder, yeast, bacteria, etc.); but leavening is also formed through the incorporation of air (beating, eggs, creaming fats and sugars, folding and beating doughs, rolling doughs such as puff paste, etc.) and through the use of steam (the liquid in a batter or dough that may be converted into steam — as is used in propusers and cream puffe) production of carbon dioxide (baking in popovers and cream puffs).

in popovers and cream purts). Eggs, I found, were commonly used in the recipes; however, the incorporation of air into the egg is especially easy because of the coagulation of the egg proteins which give structure and rigidity to the cell walls surrounding the air bubbles. Eggs also leaven through their liquid, which converts to steam

The spirit of the law should be considered in baking and cooking. To leaven is to make a product light and porous and when God commanded that porous and when God commanded that leaven be put out of the house, He did not limit it to those products made by the biological production of carbon dioxide, but to all forms of leavened foods. A sin is a sin irrespective of its form, and the same applies to leavened foods. In Philline

Jan Phillips Glencoe, Ala.

* * *

In reference to recipes, WN, 29/3/76 — having just been fitted for reading glasses, I sat down this evening to study the recipes. Last year I didn't bother to struggle with the fine print but stuck to my "old faithfuls" from the booklet Recipes for Days of Unleavened Bread, plus a few "ordinary" ... things like yo-yo biscuits and shortbread and rich fruit cake (which is really just fruit stuck together with a batter). Now the query — I am actually appalled because I consider many of these recipes to be leavened. Here is of these recipies to be leavened. Here is my reasoning. Q. What is leaven? A. A means of raising, rising, or puffing u different meal or flour products . . . Lois Orford

Kallangur, Australia

* * *

I was shocked to find leavening among I was shocked to find leavening among the "unleavend" recipes in the latest issue of The Worldwide News. Specifi-cally bread. . . These recipes tell you to mix the "starter." let it set (pick up yeast) 24 hours, mix the rest of the dough the next day, and then let it "rise" before baking. This is the method of leavening bread that has been used for thousands of years! Many recipes call for using egg whites . . . The dictionary definition of leaven includes this, also. In addition to flagrant violations of the command to not flagrant violations of the command to not eat leaven, I find it distressing to see a eat leaven. I find it distressing to see a fetish being made of Holy Day baking and getting our minds off of the true meaning of the season. I don't feel a Christian should be involved with extra baking that looks leavened . . . that tastes leavened. If we really had our minds on God's overall plan and particularly this Holy Week, we wouldn't be o husy trying to circumyent wouldn't be so busy trying to circumvent God's commands. What comes next, hot cross buns?

Allen H. Weber Minneapolis, Minn

When printing recipes from our

the curring Kingdom of God. And now as never before we need to speak out forcefully to accomplish this goal. I stand behind you as much as possible in prayer and with financial support. As the sayings go, lets "get it all together" and "keep on keeping on."

readers last year, the accompanying article noted that the recipes were provided as a service. The editors followed the same approach again this year, printing those recipes that called for no yeast, baking powder or baking soda. No aitempt was made to evaluate the theology of peripheral substances that some may consider leaven. We apologize for not calrifying this policy this year. The following is a quote from managing editor John Robinson that appeared in the

John Robinson that appeared in the March 3, 1975, WN:

"'As with so many areas of life, everyone has a slightly different under-everyone has a slightly different under-standing of exactly what leavening is: "We've reprinted these recipes which were submitted by our readers as a service — not as the official Church-approved recipes for the Spring Feast. If anyone feels some of the recipes are questionable, then I suggest they not use them."

Specifically regarding Mr. Weber's letter, though he encloses the word starter in quotation marks, the term is not used in any of the recipes.

й й й и Canadian speedup Many, many thanks for my Worldwide News paper of March 29 that I received April 5. T ve had to wait so many weeks these past months that the news was old news by the time I read it. So we are all grateful for this blessing I faster service] and thank each one of you for a wonderful paper. Mrs. Dora Pierce Edson, Alta.

The Worldwide News is now shinned The Worldwide News is now shipped bulk via airfreight to Toronto in our latest effort to speed service to our Canadian readers. Once the copies arrive in Toronto they are mailed individually to

* * *

In general I would like to join countless others in expressing my joy and excitement concerning the new developments in

As brethren in the Worldwide Church

Letters to the editor, with the writer's name and address, should be sent to: The Worldwide News, Box

111, Big Sandy, Tex., 75755, U.S.A. Names will be withheld on request, but unsigned letters are not considered for publication.

of God, we all need to unite behind our one goal of spreading the good news of each subscriber.

God's Work.

Edson, Alta.

* *

Sherry Fowler Rockville, Md.

* * *

Since sensing it some 2/4 years ago, each single W/N has contained one or more names/pictures of personal acquain-tances, excluding WCG/AC staff, of course. Congenially, convivially cooperative over to cover. It's surely a super spelicious service readily rendered us ravenous readers. It must make many millions merry among mere members and mailmen. PS: Sure enjoyed James Peny's hilariously humorous way to cure arthritis

PS: Sure enjoyed James reny o hilariously humorous way to cure arthritis --WN, 4-12-76 ("Postmark"). Reminds me of Mr. Basil Wolverton's charac-terization of the No. 6 Stir to Action Speech in Spokesman's Club manual. John S. Hamilton, D. V.M Plum, Pa.

* * *

Just want to let you know how much I enjoy The Worldwide News, especially what Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Ted are doing and where they are going. Also, in the March 15 issue, the picture of Mr. Scott Crawford of the television crew zooming in on the beetle. That little beetle wurte huse fich imported IT on all of your must have felt important! To all of you, keep up the good work. It's a great paper. Geneva Smith Ackerman, Miss.

* * *

Citizens' comments

I was surprised to read in the WN an article dealing with CB, or children's band radio, as it is known in not a few Surely the WN editor and his associates were or are ignorant of the lawlessness, anarchist-minded people who clutter up the radio spectrum with their juvenile, mundane jive talk.

As a group, the CBers represent America as a whole. That is a complete America as a whole. That is a complete disregard for governmental authority. The PCC has already admitted that their creation of the CB service was a bad mistake. It is a case of where the bad apples outweigh the good apples. Of a truth, CB is a Mickey Mouse toy with which normally sane people escape into their second childhood. I'm really hoping it will dry up and blow away or that it is just a fad like 10-speed bikes were two years ago and electric watches a year ago. Charles W. Russell

Scottsbore, Ala

DONATION INFORMATION

Many members and co-workers have requested information on how best to make a gift to the Worldwide Church of God, either during their lifetime or upon death, through wills, trusts or other means.

If you desire to receive information regarding such gifts, the Legal Department of the Church is available to advise and serve without cost or obligation. Merely write

Ralph K. Helge, Attorney-at-Law Worldwide Church of God Box 111 Pasadena, Calif., 91123

Herbert W. Armstrong, in accordance with the Bible's teaching, set a policy many years ago never to make a public appeal for contributions. In keeping with this policy, this is not a request for donations but only a notice that such information is available for those who desire to receive it.

The Legal Department regrets that, because of the variance in laws of other countries, such legal information is only applicable to residents of the United States and Canada. However, in such cases the department will be pleased to furnish whatever limited information it may have available.

I very much appreciate the interest the Church is taking in CBers. I think it can be and news of the Church. I would like to see a column in every Worldwide News about CBers. Keep up the good work.

* * *

Please enter my handle and call letters in your directory. You'll never know when you run across someone you know or from your old hometown (mine being Rock Hill, S.C.).

* * *

Dave and Pat Paisley. Curly and

L.G. "Bud" Brazell KGG3761, "Scarecrow" Yadkinville, N.C.

Frank L. Hassinger KKQ9878, "Mr. Gunsmoke" and "Little Kitty" Uniontown, Pa.

Peppermint Patti, KBD8722, Phoenix, Ariz. * * * Carl M. Larsen and Andy Larsen, KKT5772, Pinecone and Sheridan Bum, Sheridan, Wyo. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Simcik, KWQ9578, Asphalt Cowboy and Jealous Wife, Granger, Tex.

Correction

In "The Official Grapevine" of the March 29 issue of the WN was an the March 29 issue of the W/ was an article about 14 students at Ambas-sador College, Pasadena, who were honored by the college's Financial Aids Office for significant contribu-tions in leadership, athletics, dorn life, social functions, speeches and Ambassador Club. In the article the names of two students were misspelled: Dennis Keefe and Paulette Powell.

The Morldwide News CIRCULATION: 34,500

The Worldwide News is the official newspa-per of the Worldwide Church of God, head-quartered in Pasadena, Calif. It is published biweetky, exceptiduring the Church's annual Fall Festival, by Ambassador College, Big Sandy, Tex. Copyright © 1976 Worldwide Church of God. All rights reserved. Editor in Chief: Herbert W. Armstrong E-titler: Camer Ted Armstrong

Editor: Gamer Ted Armstrong

Editor in Chief: Herbert W. Armstrong Editor: Gamer Ted Armstrong Managing Editor: John Robinson Assistant Managing Editor: Kaus Rothe; Senior Editor: Dixon Cartwright Jul; Fea-tures: Scott Moss; Contributing Editor: Les Stocker; Composition: Shela Dennis Circulation: Dean Koeneke, Michele Mol-nar, Nancy Scull; Photography: Tom Hanson, John Wright NOTICE: The Worldwide News cannot be responsible for the return of unsofolded articles and photographs. SUBSCRIPTIONS: To subscribe in U.S. and Canada, send subscription donation and Falin Truth label to: The Worldwide News, Box 111. Big Sandy, Tax, 73755. All U.S. and Canadian subscriptione sopire and may be renewed June 30. To subscribe in July, August or September, send 54. October. November or December, 53: January, February or March, 52: April, May or June, 51. Additional malling offices: Box 211, 51. Abans, Herts, England; Box 202, Burleigh Heada, Old, 4220, Australia; Box 2109, Aucidand I, New Zealand. ADDRESS CHANGES: U.S. changes of octobers in bandided at Intermet-Tax

2709, Auckland 1, New Zealand. ADDRESS (ANANGES: U.S. changes of address are handled automatically with Plain Truth changes of address. Do not send changes of address thanges. Do not send Canadian address changes bi: Box.44, Station A, Vancouver, B.C., V6C 2M2. Second-class postage paid at Big Sandy, Tay. Postmaster (Please sendform3578) o Worldwide Church of God, Box 111, Pasadena, Calif., 91123.

WE'RE FLATTERED. But unfortunately we are unable to provide hundreds of people who have written us with back issues of The Worldwide News. Our supply is extremely limited, and we do not have the personnel to comply with the many requests. About all we can do is suggest you borrow the issues you'd like to read from a friend.

LOS JALISCIENSES - Members of the Guadalaiara. Mexico, congregation perform folk dances depicting Mexican history. [Photos by Ken Evans]

Mexican members dance in Auditorium

On the Sabbath we conducted services and a Bible study for 54 people. We counseled another three persons and baptized one of them

Sunday morning only minutes before we left for the airport. This brought members in Grenada to 29.

We had to stay overnight in Barbados again Sunday to make a plane connection to Dominica.

Our trip from the airport to our hotel in Dominica was one that we will never forget, even though we would like to. Our driver showed little consideration for the comfort and safety of his passengers. We exchanged anxious glances as he raced along mountain slopes and narrow roads at freeway speed.

thrown out of our seats as he swerved to avoid an oncoming vehicle. Earlier we had heard this same man give advice to a friend on how to drive carefully.

We were relieved to reach the hotel. Apart from the few who have been able to attend the Feast in either

Trinidad or Barbados, the brethren and prospectives here had not seen a minister for more than two years. So they were understandably excited to see us. We had reserved the first after-

On one occasion we were literally

Caribbean elders tour Grenada and Dominica

By Victor Simpson JUAN, Puerto Rico

SAN Clarence Bass, regional director of the Work in the Caribbean, and I undertook a baptizing tour to the

The writer, who lives in San Juan, is a ministerial trainee serving the Kingston, Jamaica; St. George's, Grenada; and San Juan churches.

islands of Grenada and Dominica March 25 to April 1

After an overnight stop in Bar-bados, we arrived in Grenada on Friday the 26th. We were scheduled to meet four persons there in the afternoon.

Experience has shown that scheduling prospectives for a specific hour leads to a high percentage of no-shows because transportation can be quite difficult in some of the islands, and some people feel that, if they cannot be present at the arranged hour, there is no point in coming. So on this occasion we made it clear that we would be available throughout the afternoon.

Three people turned up, two of whom, a husband and wife, were baptized the next day.

in talk to members, and we were kept busy into the evening.

On Tuesday and Wednesday we saw 12 prospectives and baptized three. Many more showed considerable interest, and it is likely that a few more will be ready for baptism by the time of the next trip sometime after the Feast of Tabernacles.

We met a man whom we had not heard of before. He was bedridden with at least three distinct ailments, but in spite of this his example of positiveness, enthusiasm and zeal was inspiring. He might have been baptized if circumstances had permit-

We now have 16 members and many new prospectives in Dominica.

Now you know

By Susan Karoska ESCONDIDO, Calif. — Children whose parents are members often face difficulties with their peers, especially at times when others observe their holidays, such as Easter. This was the case for Larissa, small daughter of Mrs. Nancy Sass, who lives in nearby Oceanside.

Mrs. Sass reports a conversation she overheard between her daughter and a neighborhood playmate

"I've got a new Easter dress," the playmate proudly announced to Larissa.

Not to be outdone, 3-year-old Larissa quickly replied, "Well, I've got a new Feaster dress!"

By Keith Speaks PASADENA — A group of Church members traveled from Guadalajara, Mexico, to present a two-hour folk-dance performance in the Auditorium here April 17. The 21-member group, Los Jaliscienses, journeyed nearly 1,800 miles to become the first Church group from another country to perform in the Auditorium.

Jack Elliott, managing director of the Auditorium, said, "It was one of the best evenings of family enter-tainment held in the building." The dances depicted interesting aspects of Mexican history. The capacity crowd gave the dancers a standing ovation and the dancers gave three encores.

dancers gave three encores. The presentation also included a singing group, La Estudiantina, directed by Bernabe Mercado. A reception was held in the Ambas-sador College student center afterwands Gilberto Marin, a native Mexican and member of a professional folkloric group, decided to put his talents to use within the Church and formed Los Jaliscienses, which is mainly students in their late teens. For most of them this was their first trip to the United States.

They arrived by bus in Tijuana,

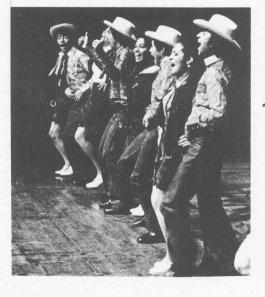

Mexico, on the U.S.-Mexican bor der, and several Spanish Department employees drove down to pick them up and then take them on a to a me campus and trips to other local attractions.

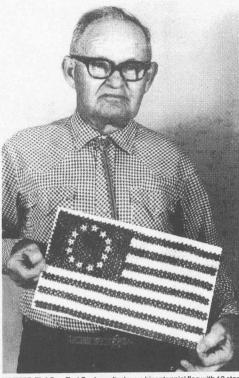

The group met with the Pasadena Spanish church for the recent Holy Days, and many of the Mexican members lodged in members' homes here.

Bus fare and other expenses were met with money from local fund-raising activities, contributions after the performance and a sizable donation from the Uvalde, Tex., church.

During the dancers' stay, Alfredo Mercado, a deacon from Guadalajara and supervisor of Los Jaliscienses, was married to Maria Celeste Garibay in a ceremony performed by Fernando Barriga, elder in the Pasadena Spanish congregation.

"We were very pleased and grateful to see how everyone in the department and church here pitched in and worked together like a real team to carry out such a large project," said Robert Flores, pastor of Pasadena Spanish. "It has become an example, an encouragement and an inspiration to all areas of the Spanish Work."

TATTED FLAG — Ted Gushwa displays a bicentennial flag with 13 stars and stripes that he tatted. [Photo courtesy The Arizona Republic] Stars and stripes forever

Hobby isn't flagging for retired carpenter

By Mary Jane Alexander PHOENIX, Ariz. — Flags are a common sight in this bicentennial year. But a Phoenix flag maker has a method as old as the flag itself. Ted Gushwa, 19401 N. Severation

St., makes bicentennial flags with the original 13 stars, as well as

and the

This article, about a Phoenix member, is reprinted here by permission from The Arizona Republic of Phoenix of Feb. 15.

Mr. Gushwa points out that no patterns are available for his flags.

today's version of the stars and stripes, by tatting. This old method, which he learned 60 years ago, produces a delicate lace by looping and knotting with a single cotton thread and a small shuttle. The origin of this craft is unknown. Gushwa, now 73, finds this work very relaxing. And it is also making him popular with friends, neighbors him popular with friends, neighbors and door-to-door salesmen who visit his home and fall in love with his handiwork. He has made six flags and is working on his seventh, because "everyone who sees them wants one of each."

Began as Hobby

Gushwa has done tatting intermittently throughout his life. But he started it actively as a hobby a couple of years ago, after he became bored with retirement. "I couldn't be active in it too often when I was a carpenter, because the work some-times interfered by making my hands too dirty. Your hands have to be extra clean when tatting," he advises. After learning to tat from his sisters as a young boy, using a grocery cord used to tie packages and a safety pin, he improved his skill to an impeccable neatness seen in his current work. He uses a system for making sure that no bare ends show.

"When I finish a row I work the dangling cord into the first loop of the next row as I move in the opposite direction. Other than that, the same stitch is used throughout the work in tatting a flat," he explains.

50 Hours per Flag

It takes 50 hours of working time for Gushwa to make one flag. "This tor ousnwa to make one flag. "This is about two weeks of actual time, when I work steadily," he adds. "I consider it good speed if I finish three of the small circles in an average of five minutes."

The flags Gushwa makes measure 7½ inches by 13 inches. He determined these dimensions by trial and error. "I had to make two flags before I got the top seven stripes to fit across from the field with the stars," he recalls.

"The idea just came to me one day that I could try to make a flag. I made the first one, with 50 stars, in mid-November.

"The only materials I need are balls of red, white and blue heavy crochet cotton. And I use a small plastic shuttle," Gushwa says.

The work is easy for Gushwa, except for one minor disadvantage. 'The varn must be wound around my fingers so tightly when I work that it sometimes cuts into them," he explains.

Because of the many hours he spends making a single flag, Gushwa charges $15 each for them. He has already sold two flags and has orders for six more waiting.

131 132 133

Gushwa doesn't mind being overloaded with orders, as long as the customers don't mind waiting until he gets around to making their flags.

The WORLDWIDE NEWS

Youths receive honors

SPRINGDALE, Ark. - Sisters Kathy and Brenda Turnbull were winners in competition called the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation. Inc., Bicentennial Essay Contest. The results of the contest were announced in the March 31 issue of the Springdale News, which spon-sored the competition.

a mint grader, each received a 525 check. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Turnbull, members of the Fayetteville, Ark., church. Kathy and Brenda will now enter regional competition.

BIBLE-VERSE ACROSTIC BY MR. AND MRS. LEONARD EHRET

Hidden in the crossword squares at the bottom of the puzzle is a Bible verse. To find what it says, answer the questions on the numbered spaces, then transfer the letters above each number to the corresponding number in the crossword squares. Here is an example of how it works:

X. CORN ON THE: COB

Transfer the C to square 24, the O to square 108 and the B to square 120.

Kathy, a fifth grader, and Brenda a ninth grader, each received a $25

ANCHORAGE Alaska - Sue

SUE KOPY

ojects. She hopes to maintain her 3.6 grade-point average at Ambas-sador College, studying liberal arts or teaching

CARTHAGE Mo. Ine Hilgenberg, 17, received the State Farmer Degree from the Missouri Future Farmers of America (FFA) April 23. This is the highest honor awarded members of the FFA at the awarded members of the FFA at the state level. Joe was also interviewed and elected by delegates as state vice president of the Missouri FFA. Joe is especially interested in dairy animals. He has won several dairy-efficiency awards with his herd of registered Nubian goats. He also was third-high individual in state dairy-com judging at Columbia. dairy-cow judging at Columbia, Mo., April 22. Joe's brother Gene, 20, also holds the State Farmer Degree and is president of the alumni chapter here. Joe has attended church with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clem E. Hilgenberg of Carthage, for 16 years. He will graduate from high school next January and plans to attend the University of Missouri, majoring in veterinary medicine.

JOE HILGENBERG

Now you know

By Dirk Verheijden

105 12 45 89 77

63 64

79 80

0.7

114 115

0.4

0.7

41 147 144

ANSWERS APPEAR ON PAGE 11

By Dirk Verneijden AUCKLAND, New Zealand — Robert Thompson, a deacon here, was a guest speaker March 3 on a talk show on a radio station that carries The World Tomorrow six nights a week week. Mr. Thompson, who is a self-employed television serviceman, answered questions from listeners who called the station about prob-lems with their TV sets. The first hour of the program was so successful that the master of cere-monies pressed upon Mr. Thompson to stay another hour. Mr. Thompson feels his Spokes-man Club training came in handy.

man Club training came in handy, and the experience gave his job a boost: After the show several people contacted him for television repairs.

Kopy, a junior at Diamond High School, was notified recently of her induction into the National Honor Society, Kokogiak Chapter. Sue, an Alaskan resident for six years, is a past camper at SEP Alaska and is extremely active in SEP-fund hinterland of the Bashee, so when Mrs. Mokwana returned with her shopping a few hours later the tributary was swollen to about four feet deep with a strong, treacherous

THE STORM

STORY FOR YOUNG READERS

By Shirley King Johnson

we will trust."

special.'

said

The wind abated.

Jim felt Grandpa's arm circle his shoulders, and Grandma's warm little

"I'm so glad we're safely in this

"King David said when he was Grandpa reminded. "So now's the time to trust. He'll keep us safe." "What about Major?" Jim asked.

"You can get another dog," Grandma soothed.

Taking a Peek

cellar door as they listened and waited.

"Do be careful," said Grandma.

They heard him feeling his way up the steps. "I can't budge the door." he announced. "There must be a tree

"Not like Major!" Jim said. "He's

A great pelting of rain rattled on the

"I'll take a peek," Grandpa hands clutched both of his.

cave," she said. "I'm afraid," Jim admitted.

Current too strong

Girl swept into flood-swollen river

By Frank W. Nelte JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — Florence Mokwana, 13, daughter of a Church member from the Transkei, a South African province, was saved from flood-swollen waters of a tributary of the Bashee River Jan 15

That morning the girl's mother, freshly set post.

in over the farmland.

rain comes.

lived

brown.

The afternoon was warm and sticky and Grandpa took a big, red bandanna from his overall pocket to wipe his face.

Jim waited to hand him another staple to pound the barbed wire into place on the

"We might get rain," Grandpa said. He hammered the staple and then squinted into the western sky. Clouds that looked dark and foreboding rolled

"Now, Jimmy, hand me another staple," Grandpa said, moving faster.

'We'll try to finish this part before the

They worked their way up the straight line of fence posts until they came to a leaning red shed. Directly up the hill from it the big, white farmhouse stood where Grandpa and Grandma

Shed in the Way

Grandpa announced, closing the cloth bag of staples. "Tomorrow I've got to start tearing down the shed so we won't have to go around it with the fence.' He glanced again at the sky. ''Looks like wind in those clouds.''

Jim had never seen the grass and trees look so strange. All the ground and sky seemed to blend into a hazy yellow

"That's all we'll do today."

Christabel Mokwana, had gone to the local village market to buy groceries. Her road had taken her across the Umhlahlane, a stream that flows into the Bashee

Hinterland Cloudburste

current As usual, when her two daughters The previous evening there had been some heavy cloudbursts in the saw her returning they ran to meet her. When they came to the river the older girl Nomthunzi was frightened by the flooded stream and stood back. But Florence, who cannot swim, waded toward her mother

Swept Toward River

After a few steps Florence was swept off her feet by the powerful current and disappeared under the turbulent waters. After a few seconds her head appeared above the surface 20 feet downstream. The current was rapidly carrying the helpless girl down to the flood-swollen Bashee itself

The riverbed is liberally dotted with huge granite boulders. These rocks, hit by the full fury of the raging torrents, often formed whirlpools

Hearing Mrs. Mokwana, neigh-bors ran to try to help Florence. By running along the banks, they got ahead of the girl and finally pulled her out of the stream about a mile from where she had fallen in

She suffered only minor bruises and they would be in darkness. "Woorff!" Major's bark outside made Jim jump up with a shout

Major to the Rescue

"Major! Good dog!" He crawled up the cellar steps and pressed his head against the unyielding door. "Get help, boy! Go! Go!"

Jim heard scratching and whining as Major tried to get to him. "Go, boy! Go

Silence

The final candle sputtered out. Jim "Stayed on the top steps, hunched and waiting. He felt very hungry. "Grandpa, I'm too young to die." "And I'm too old," Grandpa replied. "So we'll keep treading water.

Sing something cheerful, Jenny."

"Row, row, row your boat," Grandma began in her sweet little voice. "Gently down the stream . . . " "Row, row, row your boat," began Grandpa.

Jim began to row, row, row his boat, and they sang the round over and over.

Major Returns

Jim heard a tractor lumbering up the driveway. He heard a man's voice and a dog's bark. Major had come with help. "Hullo-o-o!" called a man. "Hullo, yourself," Grandpa re-sponded, joining Jim on the steps. "It's Dick Brown. He lives across the section. Don't tell me that Major galloped all that way over there!"

The tractor rumbled in closer, an iron chain clinked, a tree scraped, and the cellar door opened. Jim saw the night moon shining down on a husky farmer in overalls Then he almost tumbled over as Major leaped into his arms. "Together again!" Major seemed to gasp and his tail wagged 90 miles an hour. Jim hugged him close. "Thanks a lot, Dick," Grandpa told

Brown as they left the cellar.

"We're thankful you came by." "'I thought that beagle was crazy the way he acted," explained Mr. Brown. "I'd gone over to Mattsons' feedlot because I thought I heard a coyote. I promised to keep an eye on things for them. That dog ran at me and ran to the road a dozen times, so I followed him to see what was ailing him. I didn't know you folks were trapped down there. A lot of the phones are out, so Dorothy didn't think much about it when she couldn't reach you." "We'll miss the box elder,"

Grandma said quietly as they prepared to go into the house. "But our home

"Jim," said Grandpa. "Would you look at that?" He pointed down the hill. "That shed blew into the next township. We can finish the fence tomorrow."

Jim and Major turned to look to where Grandpa pointed into the moonlight. Jim gasped. "It's gone!" "Yep. Well, as the old saying goes, it's an ill wind that blows no good." "Grandpa means," said Grandma,

"that a strong wind sometimes can do strangely good things."

1

"Yooo-hoooo!" Looking toward the house, they saw Grandma waving her apron. "Television says there's a tornado alert!" she called. "Hurry!" "What'd she say about a torpedo?" Grandpa asked. "There's a tornado alert," Jim explained. 'Come on. We'll go to the storm cellar." He started up the hill fast and Jim followed. Jim suddenly thought of his dog.

"Major! Where's Major?" "Never mind," Grandpa said. His arm waved off toward the west. "She's coming! Hear that roar?" He broke into a trot.

"Major's down the timber chasing squirrels," Jim gasped. Stopping, he cupped his hands around his mouth. "Ma-a-a-jor! Here, boy! Here, boy!"

Grandpa's hand gripped his shoulder and pulled him along up the hill. "No time for that."

"But Major will be blown away," Jim choked.

Grandpa pulled him along faster. "Open the door!" called Grandma.

Already at the storm cellar behind the house, she clutched the family Bible in one hand and a jug of apple cider in the other.

Heavy Stillness

The stillness that had hung so heavily over the countryside had given way to a roaring, and Jim could hear the explosion of twigs snapping, hundreds at a time.

"Stand back," ordered Grandpa. He reached down, grasped the iron handle and raised the heavy wooden door.

'Hurry, Jenny.'' ''Ma-a-jor!'' Jim hollered one more time into the wild wind that swayed and

"Matches are on the bottom step,"

Jim heard him scratching one after another. They seemed to be damp and would not ignite.

Forgetting the matches, Jim listened to the raging storm. The roaring of a hundred freight trains swept over the cave. There was a splintering sound, a terrible crash, as something heavy fell on the cellar door.

"The Eternal is our refuge and our fortress," quoted Grandpa. "In Him dered, and Jim went down. The cellar was brick lined and smelled musty. Cobwebs hung from the ceiling. Jim brushed a long web from his hair as Grandpa slammed down the door and they were plunged into darkness.

bent the trees. "Down the steps!" Grandpa or-

Grandma said quietly. "I got 'em," Grandpa said. "Can-dles too."

"Oh!" gasped Grandma.

on it. "I knew it!" exclaimed Grandma. "I've been in this cave 50 times in our 49 years on this farm and I always knew some day we'd be trapped by that box-elder tree blowing over." "Trapped? Will we starve?" Jim asked in a small voice.

'No, honey, we won't.'' Grandma called herself to order. "The neighbors will haul us out.'

Grandpa rejoined them in the darkness. "Remember, Jenny, our neighbors are gone. The Mattsons went to Missouri to bury an uncle and the Havirs moved into town last winter and haven't rented their farmhouse yet." "Give me those matches," Grandma said with sudden spunk. "I'll get us some light." The first match she struck sprang to light and Grandpa applied the candlewick to it. A friendly glow filled the cellar.

Grandma dug out two musty quilts from a box, shook them out and spread them on the cold bricks. "Let's sit down and have a sip of cider." The waiting wasn't hard at first, but as the hours passed the cider jug emptied and Jim became chilled and tired. Grandpa's stories about the Big War became a little boring at last. The four candles melted away. One more 5

FORUM FOR IDEAS - Robert Kuhn, top left, moderates the wide-ranging symposium. AC faculty member Lester Grabbe, top right, comments after a presentation. Above left: Big Sandy Church member Kenneth Herrmann presents his topic. Above center: Plain Truth senior editor Herrman Hoeh uses time charts to answer the guestion, "When did Nebuchadrezzar capture Jerusalem?" Above right: AC registrar William Stenger, symposium

coordinator, addresses the audience. Below left and right: AC students Mark Rosino and Debbie and Barry Wawak listen to the presentations. Bottom left: AC faculty member Yael Katzir lectures from her paper. Bottom center: Richard Burky of the Church Administration Division discusses evolution. Bottom right: George Geis, one of the two moderators, addresses the audience. [Photos by Roger Fakhoury and John Kossey]

Idea forum

PASADENA - Thirty-two pa-PASADENA — Thirty-two pa-pers covering a wide range of topics were presented in a two-day sym-posium on the Ambassador College campus here April 19 and 20.

campus here April 19 and 20. According to college registrar Dr. William Stenger, symposium coor-dinator, the two days of meetings were to provide Church members and college personnel "a forum for the interchange of ideas" and "a vehicle for various researches that have been completed by our rescale, who completed by our people who haven't had a vehicle of this kind before, where they could actually present papers to others for criticism or discussion."

The symposium, entitled Frontiers of Knowledge and Implications for Theology, was moderated by Dr. Robert Kuhn, assistant to Garner Ted Armstrong, and George Geis, chair-man of the Theology Department.

Open to Public

Most of the authors of the 32 papers presented half-hour sum-maries to an audience made up of others involved in the symposium, plus college students and the general public.

"We even had several people who "We even had several people who traveled out here with the YOU groups [for the recent Youth Oppor-tunities United basketball tournament] who stopped by" to listen to papers as they were presented. "It was open to the public."

The symposium had been an-nounced and papers for it solicited in an article in The Worldwide News. Dr. Stenger said as a result of that article, and an announcement in The Bulletin, "about 130" people sent in "abstracts" of proposed topics. As a result of these, symposium organizers chose 32 papers to be presented, a few of which were delivered in absentia. The papers covered history, geology, evolution, astronomy, economics, political science, social science and the arts, Dr. Stenger said. "It wasn't dealing with doctrinal "It wasn't dealing with doctrinal or theological questions per se, but rather the thrust of the symposium was to study areas outside of theology but look at their theological implications."

Possibly Published

Possibly Published He said some of the papers may be published in some form. "We're looking into the possibil-ity of publishing a proceedings of the symposium, which would include at least the major articles, if not all of them. And some of the things that were mesented could possible be were presented could possibly be reworked for some of our other publications, although not directly - perhaps extracts or topics from the

Will there be other symposia?

"This is yet to be decided. We haven't totally analyzed all the pros and cons of this one, although tentatively we're thinking about having one in two years, in other words in the spring of '78."

words in the spring of "78." Topics presented included "When Did Nebuchadrezzar Capture Jerusalem?", by Herman Hoeh; "Historical Record of the 360 Day Tropical Year," by Kenneth Her-mann; "Should Artistic Creativity Have Restraints?", by Wilbur Berg; "The Fate of the Universe — Open or Closed?", by Robert Ginskey; and "The Theory of Development — Viable Alternative to Evolution," by Richard Burky. Dr. Kuhn felt the meetings were "a dream come true for many of us. The history of Ambassador College has shown a continuing interest in has shown a continuing interest in searching all aspects of human knowledge relating to the Bible."

(Continued from page 1) used for the next season

By the first few days of this week I hope to be reviewing yet another list of radio and television availabilities of radio and television availabilities, and perhaps by the next "Personal" I can announce yet an additional selection of stations we have chosen which, we hope, will be very good news for many of you brethren who still do not have adequate radio or TV coverage in your area. As I have stressed before, none of this has been budgeted, but we are going to continue to walk through these doors as rapidly as they open and simply trust God in faith to provide the means when the time comes! The main thing before us is warning before the world as a witness!

Current-Event Awareness

I hope all of you are staying very closely aware of world conditions, especially those in the Middle East and Africa!

Yesterday I reviewed the next issue of our full-color magazine-format Plain Truth, and you will find in it my father's article written from Rome concerning the communist influence and dominance on the Italian political scene and what this may mean for NATO and all of Europe.

World events are speeding up at an ever-accelerating pace, and God's Work must keep pace!

Very shortly after commencement I will speak before a small college in southern Utah at their request for a baccalaureate sermon prior to their commencement exercises. As I mentioned previously, I had decided I would accept at least a limited number of such invitations for speeches before educational institutions, civic organizations and the like (such as my recent appearance before the agricultural fair in Brandon, Man.)

My father is presently in Pasadena and spoke to the students for their regular Sabbath-morning brunch today. He will be taking the main sermon here at headquarters next Sabbah afternon, before participat-ing in the opening of the conference, and then will be en route once again for an extensive global trip which will last in the neighborhood of six weeks.

NAIA Invitation

By the way, we received notification from the executive secretary of the National Association of Intercol-legiate Athletics (NAIA) welcoming Ambassador as an associate member, effective for 1976 and 1977. This means that Ambassador College assumes the obligation of fully practicing the NAIA code-of-eligibility regulations and adopting the rules of the NAIA applying to all intercollegiets compartient.

all intercollegiate competition. For the last two years the NAIA hasheld its regional-championship games in the Ambassador College gymnasium. It numbers among its members the University of California at San Diego, the University of Redlands, Claremont Men's Col-Reulands, Clarentont Men's Col-lege, Point Loma College (San Di-ego), California Baptist College (Riverside), Occidental College (Los Angeles), Whittier (Calif.) College, La Verne (Calif.) College and many other schools, some of which are much larger than Ambassador.

much larger than Ambassador. So, actually, being accepted as an associate member of the NAIA suddenly places the Ambassador College intercollegiate basketball program on a very respected par.

Big Sandy's Program

Next year Big Sandy, as Pasadena, will enter its third year of intercollegiate competition in basketball.

Already Kermit Nelson director of Sandy, has a 30-game schedule planned for the 1976-77 season.

planned for the 1976-77 season. This past year Big Sandy has (and will again next year) competed in the National Little College Athletic Association (NLCAA), and those involved in Big Sandy's basketball program are hopeful that next year's team will make it to the NLCAA finals, in Norfolk, Neb.

Many of you brethren may not know that the Big Sandy campus has been participating in intercollegiate athletics in many fields other than just basketball for the past few years. We actually achieved national prominence with our cross-country track team when our men won the NLCAA cross-country title last year.

Big Sandy has placed heavy emphasis on girls' sports, such as basketball, volleyball, tennis, track and cycling. In fact, our women just last week set a national record in the 24-hour relay. The relay is a grueling ordeal in which a team of eight women, each running a mile at a time in consecutive order for 24 straight hours, totals the miles run and submits the results to the California sponsor organization. Our women ran more than 182 miles this year and broke the old record by three miles. I am told we already have a big I am told we already have a big increase in the number of applica-tions from students for next year, and we are expecting quite a large incoming class on both college campuses in the fall, plus, of course, campuses in the tail, plus, of course, summer classes will be going on in both locations, including our continuing-education classes for adults featuring a "vacation" for a number of families who will live on the Big Sandy campus and attend classes during the superson classes during the summer. That's about it for now. Once again my sincerest thanks for the continued expression of loyal sup-port. Your prayers are very deeply appreciated!

Your brother in Christ Garner Ted Armstrong

ON THEIR LAST LEG - Gail Coates hands the baton to Marie Owings. both sophomores at Ambassador College, Big Sandy, in the campus' third annual 24-hour relay. The eight-member women's team set a national record for the third year straight, and the men a Texas record the third time in a row. The object of the relay is to cover as much ground in 24 hours as possible. [Photo by Rick See]

The WORLDWIDE NEWS Plans under way

Quebec City site for French Feast

MONTREAL, Que. - Plans are under way for the fourth consecutive observance of the Feast of Taberna-cles in the suburbs of Quebec City. capital of Canada's only Frenchspeaking province and one of the oldest and most picturesque cities in North America.

"The French-language Work amongst Canada's six million French-speaking citizens, most of whon live in Quebec province or in neighboring areas of New Brunswick and Ontario, began on a very small scale some 10 years ago," said Cam Catherwood, superintendent of the Work's Montreal District.

"At the beginning growth was slow and not too significant. However, things literally began to explode about 1971 with the help of ads placed in various French language publications, including Reader's Digest. "And at the present time there are

"And at the present time there are many hundreds of French-speaking members attending the four fully established Churches of God — Montreal, Quebec City, Trois Rivieres, Sherbrookc — in which all services are conducted in French only. Dozens more attend outlying Bible studies."

Attendance at this fall's Festival Attendance at this fail's Festival "should exceed 700," Mr. Cather-wood said. "Services will be held in an ultramodern auditorium in the western suburbs of Quebec City, within minutes from some of the finest tourist facilities to be found in Canada. "Quebec City is an ideal location for a different type of Feast. There are majestic mountains just to the north of the city, as well as the awesome beauty of the St. Lawrence River, one of North America's great waterways, a short distance from the hall Quebec City is one of the oldest established cities on the North American continent, Mr. Cather-wood said. Part of the city walls, built hundreds of years ago, still stand, and visitors who travel from the suburbs into the old city pass through gates in the wall constructed long before much of the continent was explored.

"Any members who are French speaking and would enjoy contact with our friendly Quebecois members are certainly welcome." he said. "However, there are no provisions made for translation of the no provisions made for translation of the services into English, and a potential Feastgoer is advised to have a good working knowledge of French

Member measures success in small, personal triumphs

By Marnie Brennan ANCHORAGE, Alaska — Suc-cess to some is winning high public office, an Olympic medal or a major supporting role in a Charleton Heston movie. But sometimes "you've got

This article is excerpts from an article that appeared in the Anchorage Times of April 4. It is reprinted here by permission.

to measure your success in terms of very limited goals," says Gene Venie, an Alaska Psychiatric In-stitute volunteer who learned in two years of experience to delight at small, personal triumphs. Gene's volunteer job is to help those with a few strikes against them win a ball game. Workdays Gene Venie is a transport; ion agent for Northwest Airlines. But on one of his days off he puts in three hours at API helping a physical therapist stretch the

CB preacher didn't know he was

By Rupert G. Rouse JACKSONVILLE, N.C. — "Come in, Smokey. Come in, Smokey. This is [call sign]. I'm sitting just off Highway 17 north, right in front of the Onslow Academy."

This call came over the Jacksonville church's sound system loud and clear during services recently. The call drowned out the sermonette man.

But the young man who made the call had a surprise coming too.

Two members went out to the parking lot and asked the man, who had a Citizens Band radio in his car, if he realized he was speaking to 150 people inside the auditorium. He reportedly turned a bright pink and stammered that he did not. They explained to him that the PA system was picking up his CB signal loud and clear. He apologized. The two members reported that the last they saw of him he was movin' on.

Conference

(Continued from page 1)

afternoon session with reports from the International Division and the areas of publishing, circulation, publications and colleges; that evening a dance.

 Thursday, May 20: General morning session to include reports from the Ambassador International Cultural Foundation (AICF), Youth Opportunities United (YOU), the Financial Affairs Department, the Legal Department and the Television Production Department; concluding meeting that afternoon to be con-ducted by Garner Ted Armstrong. All general sessions are to be in the capabilities of those with mental handicaps. It's a mission he admits at first was tough first was tough. "It was my first experience with it," says Venie of work in a mental institution. "You have to get used to it. It's not always clean. It takes a little adjusting." Explaining, Venie recalls an early experience with a 17-year-old boy suffering from Down's syndrome.

Ambassador Auditorium

"It just wasn't a very pleasant picture," he says, describing the child as offensively odorous from wet diapers and drooling. But he adapted and considers experiences with that particular boy experiences with that particular boy ones that stick out in his mind as most personally rewarding. "It's a matter of learning these people, just like anyone, need love and attention. When he – the patient – does something right, you've got to be able to hur, him and praise him and say, ...ove you." At first it's a very hard thing to do. It teaches you what love is all about " love is all about.'

GENE VENIE

One of Gene's successes was helping the 17-year-old to learn to helping the 17-year-old to learn to chew and drink better, "nothing really dramatic," he remarks. "We're not looking to change the world, just trying to help them as much as we can. You never know what you're going to accomplish." Gene, at 39, is a bachelor who came to Alaska from Florida in 1967, went back east for three years in New York and returned here "prema

York and returned here "perma-nently." He likes to travel and most recently spent time in Australia and toured the Orient.

The API assignment is his first volunteer job, one he sought after viewing a television series exposing horrible conditions in a New York mental institution. It stirred him, but when he went out to the facility to see conditions firsthand "it was more than I could handle." The interest rekindled in Alaska, so he checked rekindled in Alaska, so he checked out the psychiatric facility here. "This is a fantastic facility, bright, clean and cheerful," he boasts. And Gladys Harper, the therapist he works with in Koutsky unit, is the one making my success. It wasn't till I met her [that] I really clicked in this whole thing.

applications which the members recently received, we are offering several new benefits this year which we hope will be of real service to the membership."

Mr. McMichael was referring to an insurance policy provided free to all those participating in the tithe-of-the-tithe program, expanded Youth

Festival applications rolling in

(Continued from page 1)

about the distance they prefer to be from the auditorium. "Some memfrom the auditorium. "Some mem-bers don't mind a fairly lengthy drive and look on it as a chance to see the countryside, while others want to be as close as possible and detest driving. If they will just let us know how they feel, we will do all we can.

He also said there is always greater demand for kitchenettes than are available at each site. "We find that most people are more interested in a refrigerator than in the stove, so we encourage the use of ice chests when kitchenettes are unavailable. A family with limited funds may find that by using an ice chest and stocking a few items in it they can provide themselves and their chil-dren with a light breakfast and even lunch from time to time and at the same time realize a substantial savings."

Providing a Service

According to Sherwin McMichael, Festival director, the office here is making an effort to provide the member the accommodations he desires.

Mr. McMichael, in a March 22 and 23 meeting with U.S. Festivalsite coordinators (The Worldwide

News March 29), stressed that the chief goal of his office in planning for this year's Feast is to develop a philosophy of "giving to the membership" and "providing them a service" in all Feast planning

"As has already been mentioned in the letters accompanying the

REMINDER

The Festival Office offers the following reminders to Feast applicants to help them speed up processing:

- Be sure to return your application by the June 1 deadline.
- Fill in all requested information. Use the "Comments" section for special notes or requests
- Be sure to include your deposit, one per application.
- Make sure all figures add up and your check is made out for the correct amount.
- Remember to sign your check
- · Canadian brethren: Send no Canadian funds; send an international postal money order or interbank draft. Please do not send cash.

Festival brochure planned for U.S.

BIG SANDY - The Festival Office here is busily preparing 8½-by-11-inch, full-color 1976 Festival brochures for all major U.S. Festival sites, according to Budde Marino of the office, who is in charge of the project. Eleven brochures are actually being prepared, though each will have the same cover design, and several of the articles will be have common to all.

According to Mr. Marino, the brochures may vary in number of pages but are expected to fall in the 48- to 54-page range, depending on the site.

Each site's publication is slated to include color-photo montages of Herbert W. and Garner Ted Arm-strong, letters of welcome from local officials and other features such as emergency phone numbers, an activities schedule for the site, a guide to restaurants and feature stories on local items and activities of interest, as well as advertising, according to Mr. Marino. Plans call for 80,000 copies to be printed. Two free copies will be given to each family registering at a U.S. site, with additional copies to be available at $1 per copy while the supply lasts. "We're trying to put together a brochure which will be a constant companion guide for the members," Mr. Marino said. "The policy we have established for the brochure will be 60 percent editorial and 40 percent commercial, and it will be printed on quality stock." A decision whether to include blank pages for sermon notes in the back of the brochure, as was done in some previous editions, is yet to be made

The brochures will have such articles as an update on the Ambassador International Cultural Foundation and the Church's Youth Opportunities United (YOU). There will be maps, guides to museums and galleries, a financial planner and a Opportunities United (YOU) ac Festival brochure and other benefits. The Festival Office staffers inved clude Mr. McMichael, Mr. McKin-ney, Budde Marino (who is also assistant director of campaigns for Work), Bill Braden and Paul Hunting.

"These men wear many hats, each having three or four major respon-sibilities within the departments, and several having responsibilities with the Campaign Office," said Mr. McMichael, who also directs the Personal Appearance Department. Full-time secretaries are Norma

Davis, main receptionist for the Festival and Campaign offices; Janice McKee, secretary to Festival and campaign director McMichael; Miss Eddy, secretary to Jack McKinney, Festival and campaign are Claire Goodman, a sopho-more at the college here, and Susie Klaus, a junior.

Booked for 10 Years

While the processing of housing applications is mainly handled in the four to five months before the Feast, planning for each fall's Feast begins at least a year in advance, according page of discount coupons for YOU members.

and mechanicals to coordinate from each of the 11 sites relative to advertising," Mr. Marino said.

the Festival Office, will contact businesses at each of the sites for advertising between May 10 and June 18, he said.

Sept. 23, according to Mr. Marino Festival director Sherwin McMichael summed up the aims of this year's brochures:

business manager; and Diane Luker, secretary to Mr. Marino. Two student general secretaries "We still have a flood of artwork

Four salesmen, representatives of Rough copy is due July 2, finished artwork by July 30. The project is planned to be mailed to the sites by

"We're trying to take all of the good from past brochures and put it into this year's publication."

CONFERRING - Festival director Sherwin McMichael, left, discu s a working model of the new Festival brochures with Budde Marino.

coordinator of the project. At right is a preliminary cover design for the new brochures. [Photos by John Robinson and Scott Moss] to Mr. McMichael.

Suitable sites are chosen (see article, page 9) with expected attendance in mind, and halls are contracted

"Many of these auditoriums are booked up years in advance," Mr. McMichael said. "Some of them

Locale important in site choice

By Scott Moss BIG SANDY — When the Festival Office chooses a new Feast site, five major things are taken into account: site location, the auditorium, the housing potential, the number of family-type activities in the area and the weather, according to Festival director Sherwin McMichael.

Mr. McMichael noted that the location of the site is of prime consideration. "Two thirds of our membership live east of the Mississippi, so it is fairly easy to select sites in the eastern portion of the United States which are within easy driving distance of sizable concentrations of members.

"However, in the less densely populated western states we have a more difficult situation.

"Mr. Ted Armstrong preferred fewer sites with larger attendances this past year rather than a large number of small sites. As a result, we dropped our Salt Lake City site, which we had used in 1975.

"There are not enough members in the area surrounding Salt Lake City to support a large site [see the accompanying map].

Mr. McMichael feels it is best to have larger sites with a minimum attendance of 5,000. "We feel the larger group at a given site provides us with a better bargaining position, which will allow us to get the types of auditoriums and arrangements most suitable to our membership.'

Considered when choosing the auditorium are stage visibility, seating capacity, quality of the sound system, proximity and size of parking facilities and gen-eral appearance and quality of the hall itself.

The hall is booked with a binding contract a year in advance so no last-minute cancellations can disrupt plans.

Next in line is housing potential. That is, are there enough quality housing facilities in the area?

Each site has a housing coor-dinator who works with overall housing coordinator Jack McKinney. housing coordinator Jack McKinney. They visit each facility and judge "many, many factors relative to each motel and hotel, including the cost," Mr. McMichael said. "We save approximately $400,000 to $500,000 a year for the members in what would otherwise be excessive costs throughout the Festival sites. A "met deal more work over income great deal more work goes into housing than anyone remotely imagines unless they've partici-pated in it."

The Chamber of Commerce of a prospective city is usually anxious to have the Festival held in its area. Mr. McMichael said. "Every time the Worldwide Church of God visits a site . . . it means anywhere from $1 million to $2 million being spent in an eight- to 10-day period," he said. "We're not keeping the Festival at any site where we're not welcome."

Another important factor is the family activities available. That was one reason Hamilton, Va., is being substituted for Roanoke, according to Mr. McMichael. Church members wrote the office, mentioning the lack of activities and adequate housing facilities in the Roanoke area. So the site was changed to Hampton, which boasts better housing and activities.

Even the weather is taken into account. The Festival Office tries to pick a site with mild and predictable fall weather, though exceptions are made, Mr. McMichael said. He said there will always be a need for some northern sites, since not all the brethren can afford to transfer to the South.

Even the Poconos, in Pennsyl-vania, notorious for streaks of bad weather, is appreciated by many people who attend, he said.

"There have been some unpredictable weather problems, but I think they are something we have to accept."

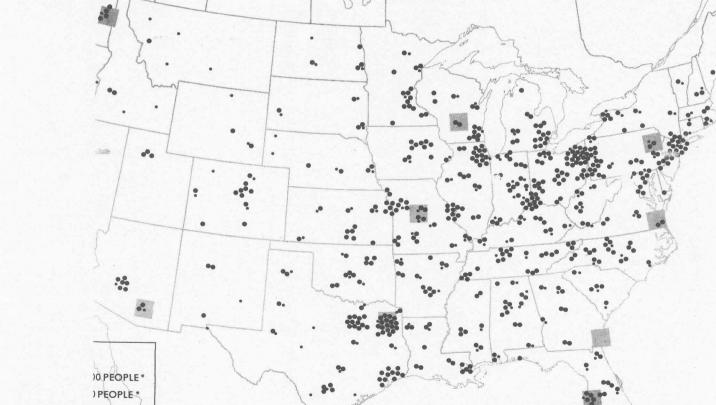

A CAD

have bookings 10 years in advance have bookings 10 years in advance for certain times of the year. Fortunately, the Festival season is not one of the busiest times of the year, so it's open for us." Projected attendance at U.S. sites this fell is one of the projected attendance at the set of the s this fall is as follows: Big Sandy 10,300; Jekyll Island, Ga., 2,400;

h-attendance figures, courtesy of the Church Administration Division.

Hampton, Va., 5,000; Lake of the Ozarks, Mo., 9,500; Mount Pocono, Pa., 10,400; Spokane, Wash., 4,600; Squaw Valley, Calif., 3,800; St. Petersburg, Fla., 7,000; Tucson, Ariz., 8,500; Wisconsin Dells, Wis. 11,400; Lahaina, Hawaii, 1,500; and Pasadena 1,500.

S. Church Membership Density and Feast Sites

Boy. 14, would like to write girls about the same age. However, motorcycles and sports, Randy Mari, 5, 2, Box 41A, Estill Springs, Tenn., 37330.

Hi. I'm 15 and would like boys ages 15 and older from Canada and Europe to write to. I enjoy sport: and anything that goes along with out-of-doors. Susan Abbey. 2239 Thomas Ave.,No. A. Alamosa, Colo., 81101. Single, female member would like pen pats 39 to 45. I'm 38. like C&W music, out-of-doors, animals, cooking, sewing, Beverty Abbey, 2239 Thomas Ave., Apt. A, Alamosa, Colo., 81101.

Hill am 12 and would like boys and girls fr Canada and Europe to write to. I enjoy anima sports and the outdoors. Sharon Abbey, 22 Thomas Ave., No. A, Alamosa, Colo., 81101 Hi! I'm a girl, 16, a junior. I would like to hear from guys everywhere 15 to 20. Some of my interests are skiing, skating, dancing, cheerleading, swimming, track. Will answer all. Kris Bricker, 2858 S. Main St., Niles, Ohio, 44446.

Greetings Would like to hear from females 25 to Greetings Would like to hear from females 25 to 30 who can sing, play the piano, are AICF presentatives, Caucasian and need an escort at Big Sandy Feast. I'm single, male, 31. Interests: AICF, classical music, song writing and singing. Conrad Fisher, W. Star RL, Box 46A, Checotah, Oka., 74426.

Single male, 26, member, interested in sports, reading, outdoor activities. Eager to hear from young and old. David Foote, 1835 Kern St., Port Hueneme, Calif., 93041.

reveneme, Cattr., s3041. Mark Sipe, Jarry Smith and the other Jerry who sees ion of SEP. 1972. Dom: Mit be second sees ion of SEP. 1972. Dom: 387 Also, all you other boys in Dom 38. Also the courselor, Joel Farnsworth, who helped us get six E lags in a row. Write Billy Wayne Jones, Rt. 1, Box 44A, Longstreet, Lar, 71050.

Single, white female, 19, would like to write other young people 18 to 23. Will try to answer all, Joan Martin, Rt. 2, Box 41A, Estill Springs, Tenn. 37330.

Hil I would like to hear from anyone and everyone. I'm 13 and interested in animals, church, sports. Guys and girls, write Tracey del Gaudio, 10351 N. Oak Grove Rd., Cohoctah, Mich., 48816.

Girl, 9, would like pen pals, any age, anywhere. Will try to answer all. Julie Rigdon, Rt. 1, Everlou Heights, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, 52401.

Lily of Arkansas: I met you at Tulsa dance April 17 but lorgot to ask your address. Please write Ca Smith, 514 S. Main, Apt. 5, Wichita, Kan., 67202.

I am a girl, will be 17 in July. I love sports, specially swimming. Guys and girls, please write. I would love to hear from other parts of the world tool Julie Emery, Star Rt., Box 503, Chugiak, Alaska, 99567.

White member wishes to hear from single ladies 21 to 31 who will be at Squaw Valley for the Feast. Will answer all. O.D. Strong, 2890 Ord Bangor Rd., Oroville, Calif., 95965.

I am a boy, 11. Interests: swimming, bowling, reading, Would like to hear from boys and girls 10 to 12. Daniel Houck, 4115 Cherry, Visalia, Calif., 93277.

I am a widow, 48. Interests: God's Work, outdoor sports, dancing, good food, friends. Anyone may write. Mary E. Cromer, Rt. 4, Abbeville, S.C., 29620, U.S.A.

Hill I'm a female Caucasian, 17, would enjoy writing young men 19 to 24. If you are a member or interested in God's Church, drop me a line or two. Lisa Hartness, Rt. 2, Box 61A, Middleton, Tenn., 38052.

Single white member, 58, would like to write to single men and women any age. Mrs. Christina M. Fitzgerald, 10135 Kilarney Dr., Dallas, Tex., 75218.

Lady, 48, divorced, member since 1968, would like to write gentlemen about same age, costing, painting, reideocrafing, handcrafts, travel, flying, boating, fishing, becoming friends, heiping others. Will answer all. Mary Whiting, 311's N. Wayne SL, Fremon, Ohio, 43420.

Caucasian male, 39, single member, wishes to write ladies 25 to 40. Interests: God's Work, history, current events, sports, music, outdoors, much more. Billy Alvey, 1000 Overlook Ave., Chattanooga, Tenn., 37411.

Connie from the cheerleading team, Warner Robins, Ga., that competed at Pasadena, met you at sock hop after cheerleading finals. Write Larry Mazzei, 738 River St., Santa Cruz, Calif. I attend the Monterey church.

Helio, all you singles in Canada. U.S. South Arica (or even U.K.) 'I di kik to hear from you, especially if you're planning to visit southern England sometime. Interests: music, reading, meeting people, cultural events, country walking, snocker, board games square dancing, Prefer pen paia 23 to 42, plesyot to hear from anyone. Mike Ookley, 35 Closters Ave., Bickley, Kent, U.K.

Boy, 11, would like pen pals 9 to 12, boy or girl. Interests: swimming, any kind of ball, biking, camping. Tony Savora, 2638 Tierra Circle, Winter Park, Fla., 32789.

D&R member, mother, would like to hear from any English-speaking members of God's Church, any age. Interests: baking, sewing, knitting, bicycle riding, basketball, swimming, reading, Joan Bradford, 353 E. 141st St., 16B, Bronx, N.Y., 10454.

Widow, white, member, 37, would like pen pais 35 to 45. Interests: bicycle riding, gardening, fishing, hiking, camping, country-western music, wildlife, nature. Betty Johnson, Box 227, Lake Pleasant, Mass., 01347.

l am 12. I would like an English-speaking girl or boy pen pal or pals. Interests: cooking, woodworking, music, outdoor activities. Cynthia Munale, Rt. 2, Hermen, N.Y., 13652.

I am 13. I like travel, languages, swimming, music. I'd like to have pen bals from Switzerland, Austria, France, Germany, Israel, the Netherlands. Cathy Coffman, Box 1113, Big Sandy, Tex., 75755.

Black male would love to hear from anyone 19 to 30. Many interests. Jerome Thomas, 5824, Box 28, Pendleton, Ind., 46064. Would C.M. of Sacramento please write C.C. of L.A.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mrs. Mary Hensley of Clermont, Queensland, Australia, has great pleasure in announcing the

Monday, May 10, 1976

NOTE: All personals are subject to editing and condensation.

WHERE TO WRITE: Send your ads to: "Personals," The Worldwide News, Box 111, Big Sandy, Tex., 75755, U.S.A.

engagement of her daughter, Ruth Mary, to Mr. Ken Edward Murray of Wyong, N.S.W., Australia. Both have been students at Ambassador. The groom is presently a health-and-building officer. The wedding is planned for Oct. 6. Mr. and Mrs. Al Allworth of Pasadena, Calif., are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter Lynn to Mr. Lance Haupt, also of Pasadena. The couple are planning a late-August wedding in Pasadena.

Alexander R. Thomson and Rita Mathwig are hapoy to announce their engagement. Rita graduated from Ambassador College, Pasadena, in 1972, Alexander in 1975. Both currently live in Pasadena.

In 1972, Alexandes in 1975, both currently we in Pasadena. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver K. Tovsen of Anchorage, Alaska, are pleased to announce the engagement of their dauphter, Joan Eather, to Raph Wayne Jones of Carolo Alvesság, church. The bride-elect has attended Anchorage church. The bride-elect has attended Anchorage community College and is working for the Bursan of Land Management in Anchorage. The groom-to-be is a Vietnam vesteria who has interpid C. V.S-11 and is currently employed by the Alaska State Department of Highways Girdwood. The wedding is set for May.

Mr. and Mrs. A.A. Pascoe of Johnsonville, Weilington, New Zealand, are very pleased and happy to announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Elaine Ruth, to Neville Morgan, also of Weilington. The couple plan to be married Dec. 12.

use: 12. We and Mrc Gilbert M. Hourn of the Clarksburg, W Va. church are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter, Mayr Kays, to David Hugh Golder, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Golder of the Pittsburgh, Pac, church. The Pittsburgh and works as a draftswoman for industrial Contracting. The prospective groom attends Triangle Technology Institute in Pittsburgh and is employed by a mole chain, wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill J. Faulkner of Lexington, Ky., announce the engagement of their daughter, Kimberlee Ann, to Sidney Ray Semones of Frankfort. A July wedding is planned.

WEDDINGS

Mrs. Virginia Apa of Pasadena, Calif., and Mr. Leon Caskey of De Quincy, La., were married April 10 by Mr. Dennis Doucet, local elder of the Lake Charles, La., church. Attendants were Ora Lue Caskey and John Lampkin. They live at 313 Coffee St., De Quincy, La., 70633.

MR. AND MRS. LEON CASKEY

Heino Artrude Silbon, dughter of M. and Mar. Guy Silborn of Mozamin, Sask, and Loyd Pobert Teetaart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Teetaartol Regina, Sask, were joined together in marriage by M. Guy Silborn in Regina. The bear man was kenneh Teetaart, brother of the groom, and maid o forom was Emelene call, heind of the and maid o forom was Emelene call, heind of the Regina, Sask.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD TEETAERT

MR. AND MRS. TED PENDERGRAFT MH, AND MISS, IED PENDEHGHAFI Miss Rebecca Hilgenberg, duguher of Mr. and Mrs. Clem E. Hilgenberg of Carthage, Mo-became the bridle of Mr. Tad Fendergraft April 1 in Carthage. The groom's parents are Wr. and Don Mason performed the caremony, Miss Trady Allaman of Wichita, Kan., was maid of honor, and the bridle's brother, Mr. Gene Hilgenberg, served as best man. The couple will reside in Befton, Mo.

Gilbert Backfisch of Bertrand, Mo., and Debra Ann Buell of Chaffee, Mo., were married April 4 in Cape Girardeau, Mo. Mr. Earl L. Roemer performed the ceremony. The couple presently resides in Bertrand, Mo.

Marilyn Wisecup and Randy Moots were united in marrfage March 21 in Higginsville, Mo. Mr. Robert Spence performed the ceremony. The couple and Marilyn's daughter Rachel now reside at 1365 Baker Dr., Independence, Mo., 64050.

MR. AND MRS. RANDY MOOTS Robert Boling Tucker and Rebekah Lynn Druce were united in marriage April 3. Mr. Harold Treybig performed the ceremony. The couple are now residing at 8520 Pitner, Apt. 227, Houston

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT TUCKER Charlotte Hankins and John Williams were united in marriage March 20 in Wichita, Kan. Mr. Bil Winner performed the ceremony. Mary Peters was the matron of honour. Mr. David Atkins was (See PERSONALS, page 11)

We'd like to let the readers of The Worldwide News know about your new baby as soon it arrives! S lust fill out this oupon and send it to the address given below as soon as possible afterthebabyis born

Our coupon helps this issues is soften "Chip" Muir Sisan III, see of John and Henroy Sisan of Si-Jaeph, Mo. II year workd like to soften its absolgands of your chief for the coupon, just send photo Ibaek and white preferred) to: The Worldwice News. Box 111, Big Sandy, Tex, 27555 U.S.A. Please include the name of chidid, parents names and address. Sorry, we canno guarantee using or returning your photo. Submission limited to members of the Worldwide Church of God who are subscitems. Please enclose your WW address label.

BIRTH ANNO THE WORLDV BOX 111 BIG SANDY, 1
Church area: .
Baby's first an	d middle names:
No. of children	same sex as baby (including baby):
Boy Girl	Total No. of children (including baby):
Parents' name	S:
Birth date:

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Steven Michael, fourth son, fourth child of Dave and Cheryl Robinson, April 12, 7:09 a.m., 9 pounds 1½ ounces. SAN GABRIEL VALLEY, Calif. — Meredith Laraine, second daughter, second child of Tom and Sue Black, April 20, 12:57 a.m., 8 pounds 12 ounces

SEATTLE, Wash. — Rebecca Suzanne, third daughter, seventh child of Ted and Margare Brush. April 2, 2:31 p.m., 9 pounds 6 ounces.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — Nathan Jon, first son, second child of Jack and Vicki Willoughby, April 18, 11:15 p.m., 7 pounds 6 ounces. ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. — Shawn Michael, first son first child of Carl and Frances Hayward, April 21 9:52 p.m., 5 pounds 9 ounces.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. — Frederick Wayne, first son, second child of Wayne and Pauline Earle, March 8, 12:35 p.m., 8 pounds 10 ounces.

VICTORIA, B.C. — RaeAnn Marie, first daughter, first child of John and Merrie (McCann) Elliott, April 19, 5:38 a.m., 7 pounds 1 ounce.

first child of Danny and Gail (Ellis) Workman. April 15, 1:36 p.m., 6 pounds 14 ounces.

ROCKFORD, III. — Sonja Lee, first daughter second child of Daryl and Kathy Swain, March 25, 9:15 a.m., 9 pounds 8 ounces.

WICHITA, Kan. — Tangela Louise, first daughter, first child of Jack and Susan Wedel, April 17, 3:12 a.m., 6 pounds 14 ounces. YORKTON, Sask. — Tracy Alana, first daughter, second child of Bruce and Donna Bird, April 22, 8:12 p.m., 7 pounds 13 ounces.

PERSONALS

Send your personal, along with a WN mailing label with your ad-dress on it, to "Personals," The Worldwide News, Box 111, Big Sandy, Tex., 75755, U.S.A. Your personal must follow the guide-lines given in the "Policy on Personals" box that frequently appears on this page. We cannot print your personal unless you include your mailing label.

PEN PALS

To all of you who were so kind and answered mu ad last October: I'm sorry I haven't written. I think of all of you often with much affection. Barbara Worsham.

Three sisters, Pam, 22, Kathleen, 18, and Marlene, 15, would like pen pals from the Scotland church. We attend the Belfast church. Pam Darlison, Sydney St., Aughnacloy, Co. Tyrone, Northern Ireland.

I will be 15 in May and I would like to hear from guys or girts 14 on up. I like swimming, bike riding, skating, fishing, rock music and soccer. Gina Savoja, 2638 Tierra Circle, Winter Park, Fla., skating, Savoia, 32789.

lam 13 and would like to have a pen pal from New Zealand and/or Australia. Angle Gum, 62 Marion Lane, Eugene, Ore., 97404.

Single male co-worker, white, 25, seeks female member or co-worker pen pals 19 to 24. Interests roller skating, bowling, dancing, softball. I attend at Omaha, Neb. Ted O. Carlson, Rt. 2, Laurel, Neb., 68745.

I would like to write to anyone living in or near Cromer and Sheringham (Norfolk County) England. I was born in Cromer when my father was in the Air Force, and I'd like to know what it is like now. We left in January, 1962. Metody Hatch (17 years old), 2012 Washington Ave., Caldwell, Idaho, 83605.

10

BABIES

AMARILLO, Tex. — Tamara Dawn, first daughter, second child of Steve and Teresa Cryer, April 24, 8:20 p.m., 7 pounds 9 ounces.

CLEVELAND, Ohio — Jason Edward, first son, first child of Bud and Linda Diehl, April 20, 9:24 a.m., 8 pounds 3 ounces.

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Jeremy Wayne, first son first child of Lonnie and Lucy Ana (Miller) Martin April 8.52 p.m., 9 pounds 1½ ounces.

DENVER, Colo. — Derek Eugene, second son seventh child of David and Niki (Hannivig Seroka Jan 31,612 p.m. 9 pounds 5½ ounces.

EVANSVILLE, Ind. — Deborah Rhea, first daughter, second child of John and Barbara Wesley, April 7, 12 p.m., 7 pounds, 3½ ounces.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — Joanna Marie, first daughter, third child of Jim and Bonnie Williams, Feb. 4, 11:39 p.m., 7 pounds 2 ounces.

FORT WAYNE, Ind. — William Davis, first son, first child of Phillip and Pamela (Black) Martin, April 19, 10:24 p.m., 8 pounds 6 ounces.

FORT WORTH, Tex. — Ruth Elisabeth, first daughter, first child of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kinsey, April 18, 6:08 p.m., 10 pounds.

HAMILTON, Bermuda — Andrew Christopher, first son, second child of Mary Jane and Rodney Taylor, Feb. 24, 4 p.m. 7 pounds 3 ounces

HOBART, Australia — Jonathan Roy, first son, first child of Anne and Kevin Summers, March 20, 6:38 p.m., 8 pounds 3½ ounces.

KELOWNA, B.C. — Karen Marie, second daughter, second child of David and Kathy Jensen, April 15, 2:17 a.m., 7 pounds 14 ounces.

LAKE CHARLES, La. — Benjamin, fourth son, fifth child of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Stoute, March 8, 8 a.m., 9 pounds 2 ounces.

LAKE OF THE OZARKS, Mo. — Seth Delos, first son, third child of Rod and Judy Reynolds, April 2, 2:19 a.m., 8 pounds 7½ ounces. LAKE OF THE OZARKS, Mo. — Maxwell Lee, first son, first child of Ed and Marcell Williams, April 9, 1:10 a.m., 8 pounds 7½ ounces.

LAWTON, Okla. — Wynnfred Henry, third son, third child of Jack and Lois Netherland, April 22, 1:27 a.m., 8 pounds 8 ounces.

LONG BEACH, Calif. — Ian Michael, first son, first child of Wayne and Deborah Atchison, March 30, 8:10 a.m., 6 pounds 15 ounces.

LUTON, England — Derrick John, second son, second child of Stewart and Susan Gilchrist, March 14, 9:45 a.m., 6 pounds, MELBOURNE, Australia — Heidi, first daughter, first child of Bruce and Zora Lehmann, March 25, 6:30 a.m., 7 pounds 8 ounces.

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Joel Glen, third son, third child of Richard and Virginia Reeves, Feb. 16, 6:21 p.m., 9 pounds 4 ounces.

NORFOLK, W.Va. — Abigail Catherine, first daughter, second child of David and Cathie Michaiak, April 21, 11:30 a.m., 7 pounds 1 ounce.

PERTH, Australia — Jason Boyd, second son, third child of Lester and Sandra McKelvie, April 8, 4:59 p.m., 8 pounds.

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Ernest Fred, third son, 13th child of Ernest Fred and Margaret (Bogle) Klaas, March 29, 6:40 p.m., 8 pounds 1½ ounces.

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Latisha Michelle, first daughter, first child of Marc and Carolyn Masterson, April 17, 2:10 p.m., 7 pounds, 13/2

PIKEVILLE, Ky. — Susan Lucretia, first daughter, first child of Larry and Crystal Phillips, April 5, 6:11 a.m., 5 pounds 11 ounces.

RICHMOND, Va. - Mandy Tess, first daughter

PERSONALS (Continued from page 10)

the best man. John, Charlotte and children are at home at 5843 Van Dale, Wichita.

Diane Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds of Clifton, N. J. and Kenneth Reis, son united in marrage Dac. 21 Mr. Kernen, M. J. were united in marrage Dac. 21 Mr. Kernen, M. J. were united in marrage Dac. 21 Mr. Morrage Dac. Bergerty performed the ceremony. The young Swagerty performed the ceremony. The young couple are now residing in North Plainfield, N.J.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Stout and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller are happy to announce the marnage of their children, Mellie Ellen and Steven Lawrence, March 31 in Lambertvile. Mich. Mr. Michael Hechel, pastor of the Toledo, Ohio, church, performed the ceremony. The ouple will live at 526 Dewar Dr., Rock Springs.

MR. AND MRS. STEVE MILLER

MR. AND MRS. DONALD MOLNAR

Miss Jacquelyn Rae Widney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Widney, Oakwood, Okla.. and Donald Ray Mohrar. Laramie, Wyo.. were married April 3. Jack Pearson, sister of the bride tad, with Mrs. Judy Pearson, sister of the bride tad, with Mrs. honor and John Mohrar, brother of the groom, as best man. The couple are making their home in Laramie.

ANNIVERSARIES

ANNIVECROSAMESS Mr. and Mr. Woode C. Smith J Big Samy Felebrated their 50th wedding anniversary March 7. The couple was married in 1926 in Russion Mr. and Mr. Smith. 73. worked in railroad construction for the second second second second second second Shady Grove next door to their eldest son, Paul Shady Grove next door to their eldest son, Paul Shady Grove next door to their eldest son, Paul Shady Grove next door to their eldest son, Paul Shady Grove next door to their eldest son, Paul Shady Grove next door to their eldest son, Paul Shady Grove next door to their eldest son, Paul Shady Grove next door to their eldest son, Paul Shady Grove next door to their eldest son, Paul Shady Grove next door to their eldest son, Paul Shadhana, Calif. Kenneth Smith and family live in Pasadena. Calif. Daniel Smith and family are statened in Hawai. The Smith shave 12 gride enjoys swing.

MR. AND MRS. WOODIE SMITH To my precious little treasure on the seventh anniversary of our wedding. May 18: Here's hoping that our future happiness together will be as great in the past. All my love, Ivor.

SPECIAL REQUESTS

Mrs. Loretta Mitchell was beginning to attend church after her mind was opened to the truth when ahe was stricken with a stroke that left her partially paralyzed. Although she is some better, she desparately needs your prayers and letters: she desparately needs your prayers and letters: when the she have a stroke that the she was a water Mill Rd. Springeled. Mo. 65800.

Please pray for my husband. He has a problem that he needs God's help with. God understands. Please pray that I also will be strengthened. Mrs. S., Georgia.

Your prayers are requested for Suzanna Noite of the Belleville. III. church. She has a defective heart valve and is unwavering in her faith and dedication to God. Please pray for her healing and happiness. She has suffered much.

John Manos, an inmate of Chillicothe Correctional Institute, has contracted tuberculosis Please remember him with your prayers, cards and letters of encouragement. Mr. John Manos Sr., Box 5500, No. 112501, Chilicothe, Ohio, 45601,

I would appreciate your prayers. I have suffered for some time from emphysema. There is no treatment for me except terribly potent drugs. am 82. Iva. M. Schmoker. 1303 NE Campus Parkway. No. 405. Seattle. Wash. 98105.

I sincerely need your fervent prayers for my physical condition. Only our Great Physician can heal me now, and I know He can. Peggy Pachuta. Pell City, Ala.

Pell City, Ala. I would appreciate your prayers for my mother. Evelyn Strandvold of Portland. Ore, who has a blood syndrome and progressive brain deteroration which is nonreversible. She is not deteroration which is nonreversible. She is not intervised with the Church, but she needs God's intervised with the Church, but she needs God's Strandvold, Gold Besch, Ore.

Request prayers of the brethren for the resolution of several personal problems, a closer walk with God the Father and Jesus Christ, and peace of mind.

mind. Please pray for my deliverance from the military. I attend services in Waco and if it is God will will be able to ive there. I am prepared to do what he desiries and commands. May I have your earnest prayers in this matter? R. Lee Embry. Pt. Hood.

prayers in this matter? R. Lise Embry, F.I. Hood. Provide a strain of the strain of the strain of the strain provide strain of the strain of the strain of the strain prayers. E.B., Long Beach. We shive in a housing project. If is hard to raise wegetables and flowers because of dogs, children and other things causing damage. For a long time I we wind a no organic garden to give mes something Multing to do, and reduce for dogs, children and other things causing damage. For a long time I we wanted an organic garden to give mes something Multing to do, and reduce for do strain prayer for protection of our plants. The pretintem's prayers will be appreciated. Mis. Verna Faye Johnson, Hellin, Ala.

I would like to request prayer for my brother. Bob Calton, who has complete kidney failure at age 22. He is on a kidney machine three times a week at the Columbia (Mo.) Medical Center. He is not a member but has a desire to be healed by God. Mrs. Ray Gardner, New Athens, III.

MTS. ray Gatönér, New Altens, III. Your ferveni paryers are requested for Miss Pauline Young, who is suffering from serious internal conditions which cause much pain and linearial conditions which cause much pain and Long Beach, Calif. You prayers, cardis and concern are needed for You prayers, cardis and concern are needed for your paints, cardis and concern an ended for your paints, cardis and concern an ended for your paints, cardis and concern wery special widow of the the Long Beach-Church. Her name is Mary Galbrahl and she has diabetes. Her address: 2742 E. Third St., Long Beach, Calif.

Beach, Calif. This is a request for your prayers for the complete healing of our dear brother. He was a very active, vibrant man. He enjoys receiving cards from the brethren. He is Mir. Car ada Hodges, Rt. 9, Box 289, Jonesboro, Tenn.

Your prayers requested for my husband, who is a nonmember but has been very charitable to many nonmember but has been very charitable to many nonminually from chas been ill and suffers pain continually from chas been very ductors for six years. Mrs. Alvena Writin 3740 chomeo Plank Rd., Romeo, Mich., 48065.

THANK-YOUS

and Mrs. James E. Arrant, you're our beloved pled parents. Thank you for your kindnesses my

"Postmark" is The Worldwide News' haven for reader contributions that don't fit into any other existing departments of the paper. If you have a contribution that isn't quite a news article, doesn't fit into the "Wrap-Up" section, couldn't be called a letter to the editor or wouldn't look right as a miscellaneous personal, send it to: "Postmark," The Worldwide News, Box 111, Big Sandy, Tex., 75755, U.S.A. All we ask if that you keep it short. (The WM doesn't necessarily endorse any material in this column. Contributions are subject to condensation.)

Just as good The church of Bern (Switzer-land) is composed of only a few members. Frequently we are having lunch together, after the Sabbath service. Recently we went to a restaurant where the menu announced a fine meal

The waitress came, and before ordering we wanted to know what kind of meat the "schnitzel" was made of.

She went to ask, came back and told us - rather apologetically:

"Look, it's turkey. But I assure you that it does taste just as good as a pork schnitzel! Martin Ryser

Bern, Switzerland

* * Reason enough

At times people talk about chewing gum on fast days. In the book Consumer Beware, by Beatrice Trum Hunter, a paragraph appeared about gum.

"Chewing gum is defined legally as food and rightly so, for about 2/3 of the stick of gum is actually swallowed. About 60 per cent of the total weight is sugar, which amounts to ½ teaspoon in each stick. This high proportion of sugar is reason enough to avoid chewing gum. In studies, the chewing of a single stick of gum increased sugar in the saliva about 3,500 percent, and the effect lasted about ½ hour." (Miss) Starr L. Reynolds Gaffney, S.C.

unusual experience on the Night to Be Much Remembered, which I would like to share.

the son-in-law of one of our group complete with unleavened bread.

* * *

Completely leavened A group of us had a quite-

Arrangements had been made for us at a club-restaurant run by

After enjoying a very fine meal

we heard a commotion. Looking around, to our sur-prise there was a large birthday and love. We love you, Jimmie and Barbara

The WORLDWIDE NEWS

Levold kerke jou animite allo sararat Levold kerk to thank all my berhere in the Bridgeort and Harford. Con... churches for making my first Passover. Night to Be Much wonderful ad memo-annual. Sabbarn a most wonderful ad memo-annual. Sabbarn a most wonderful ad memo-annual. Sabbarn a most wonderful ad memo-annual. Sabbarn a 48-nour luriough winch made this possible the see you all agar for Pentecost (gue al. Lidheled Connectional Center. Box 968. Lidheled Conn. 65758

I would like to thank the many brethren for thei letters, cards and prayers for my husband James Walker, who died March 30 of cancer Grace Walker.

To all the members of the Worldwide Church of God and co-workers: This is to say thank you tor all the lovely cards and letters of encouragement. Continued prayers will be deeply appreciated Love to all Mrs. C.J. Tulipano, 550's Barton St. E., Upper Duplex, Hamilton, Ont., L&L 223, Canada.

To Evie Dowell and family in good of Kentucky and Connie in Arizona: Thanks again for cards letters and encouragement: Love. Mrs. C.J. Tulipano. 550'2 Barton St. E., Upper Duplex. Hamilton, Ont., L8L 223. Canada.

Attention Mel Turner: We in the Florence. Ala.. church want to say thank you for all the long hours and deep concern you have been giving to us. The entire membership of the Florence church. Thank you to some very special people in the Cookeville, Tenn., church: Mrs. Bohannon, Mrs. Oakes, Gladys and Ruby, You made April 21 a day never to be forgotten for us. God bless you; you were all wonderful. Love, Betty and Leisha Whetstone.

Sincere thanks and heartfelt love to all of the brethren that sent me cards and letters from all over the U.S.A., Canada and Australia. I am grateful for your prayers and concern. Mrs. Mabel Massey, 67 Park Ave., Englewood, N.J., 07631. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barrick: Thank you so much for the many times you were there when I needed help. Eva.

Thank you, Rose.

I would like to thank all who have been concerned for me since the report of my blood clot that was caused at work by a leg injury. Phieblits set in and still is affecting me. Thank you all for your cards, letters and encouragement. Ray Becker, 2721 E. 17th St., Long Beach, Calif., 90804. We the Dallas chürch would like to express our heartfelt thanks to Garner T. Armstrong, Jim Thomhill, Ron Dick and their band for the enjoyable evening of entertainment at the dance. We marveled at how strong your voice was after four straight hours of singing without a break. Thank you again. Dallas church, Texas.

LITERATURE

I would like to obtain Dr. Hoeh's Compendium. Will return promptly, if desired, or will reimburse cost. Would also like lessons 49 to 66 of the old CC. Will pay postage. Philip H. Osborne. 200 Cole Rd., Greenville, S.C., 29611. Wanted: copy of the hymn book which was in use before the present, hard-bound, blue one was introduced. Will pay postage, or I will return it after three weeks. Thomas J. Miller, 103 E. Poplar St., Wenonah, N.J., 08090.

Wanted: set of Bible Story and parts of or complete set of old Correspondence Course. Will pay all postage. Mrs. Brenda DeHart, Rt. 3. Box

SEP share transportation. Among his devices a second many memory and the second many secon cake with candles! It was also the mother-in-law's birthday. (Of course the cake was completely leavened.)

1085, Fort Smith, Ark, 72901

If anyone has any lessons of the old Cor-respondence Course that they could give away. I would appreciate them very much. Barbara E. Worsham, 2335 Old Spring Rd., Smyrna. Ga., 30080.

If anyone out there has a copy of Vol. 2 of Dr. Hoeh's Compendium, I would be glad to purchase it or to make a photocopy of it. Will pay postage also. Rose Demirgian. 175C. Rt. 1. Plattsburgh. N.Y., 12901.

TRAVEL

Hungarians — Could I hear from anyone planning to take the William Penn Breentennial Trip to Hungary? Would especially like to hear from widows or widowers. Also am trying to locate a second-hand size 14 Hungarian peasant's outlit. R. Edwards. Box 404, Norton, Va., 24273.

Edwards. Box 404, Norton, Va. 24273.
Three Ambasador College Automts with between the standard of th

To Church members in San Luis Obispo or Sar Jose areas: My Mother and I would like to move to one of these areas this summer. Neec information on housing for us and pels. Also about jobs. Any other information you can give us. Helen E: McQuillen, 32 S. Maple St., Corning N.Y., 14330.

SEP students! Do you need transportation to orr? We plan to take a bus, round drig, do bub sessions. Plans are to lave of chattancrops, a Tornt, June 13 and arrive in Orr June 15 for the first session. Call or write Chartes Dailey, 170 White Dak Rd, Cleveland, Tenn, 37311, (615) 479-5080.

Feast-site and travel information for Canada, Feast of Tabernacles, 1977. You know, we need to know, because we're coming over to keep the Feast with you. Janet Atherton and Jaquelin Griffiths, "O'Rdiwedd," Penygarreg Rd., Tonyrefail, Mid Glam, Great Britain.

Tortyrenan, mu Gaan, orea charan. English freshman hopes to travel from New York to Big Sandy by car or bus and would like to share the journey with car or bus and would like to share the journey with an or the start of the second may be driving or busin mout also. Public ASAP, Paul Williams, 1, Histoke House, Violet Lane, Croydon, Surrey, England.

Residents of North and South Carolina and northern Georgia: I would like the following info, on taxes, cost of living, jobs, housing, hospitals, clinics, doctors, WCG, climate for bronchial asthma. Thank you. Mrs. B. Hickey, 6143 Cedarwood Rd., Mentor, Oho, 44060, Margaret Farmer Oklahoma City, Okla.

Worried little sister I can still remember the day I can still remember the day when we found out that shorten-ing could be lard unless it is specifically called "vegetable shortening." We were all rushing around checking the ingredients labels on all of our food. I'll never forget the look on my worried, wide-eyed little sister's face when she innocently looked up and asked, "Does toothpaste have shortening?'

Raffael Ricci Sellersville, Pa.

* * *

Fried salsify Salsify is a biennial garden vegetable, also called oyster plant. The plant is native to the Mediterranean area, but it also grows in the northern United States. The tapering roots are used in Europe and America as a table vegetable.

A common method of preparation consists of cutting them into small pieces, boiling until tender and creamy. They are also good boiled, then dipped in cracker crumbs and fried. They give an agreeable flavor to soups. Farmers cultivate salsify in the same manner as the parsnip. The roots are easily kept over winter. either in the ground or stored in cool, moist earth.

Linda Arnold Fisk, Mo.

I would like to hear from brethren in Bakersfield. Calif. My daughter plans to attend the summer Guard Dog Training School at Manderin Kennels She will need rides to church. Theima Elwess. Rt 1. Box 118. Chadron. Neb., 69337.

11

MICELLANEOUS

Augie: Your flowers are the best. Thanks for the rose. Cant. 4:7. Bill risse Cant. 47, bill. Grandba (in memory of my father im law. W T Lands): Who caught the biggest lish? Who had the finest dish? Who gave han bene to be Grand-despite inflation? Who gave sha hence to be farant cans were not light? Who babyes at the children again last night? Who babked the cakes? Who again last night? Who babked the cakes? Who or our grandba or all hen as bone. Cad bone we shall see him, and again well have fun.

To Captain from Igor: See you soon!

Mabel, have piece for quilt. Please hold if you bave too many Zula, please let me know how you do handwork! Ester Yu of the Philippines has requested that we say hello to the WCG for her. So, WCG: "Hello!" Jimmie and Barbara.

Al and Bunny Johnsey; We owe you a letter but do not have your new address. Please write Roger and Kathy Wiles, Rt. 2, Box 179, Brevard, N.C., 28712.

Artie Caudill: We hear you are a member of WCG somewhere in Tennessee. So are we, Myrtle, Shirley and Georgia Pettrey, We would love to hear from you. Shirley Butz. 158 Bailey St., Hamilton, Ohio, 45011.

SORRY

We print personals only from WN subscribers and their dependents: And we cannot print your personal unless you include your mailing label.

Are there any brethren living in the Lucknow or Wingham. Ont., area? Would be interested in hearing from you as I am originally from that region. Left for Manitoba in 1966. Ross Hamilton, Box 93, Shilo, Man., ROK 2A0, Canada. Would like to have any information on Bates method for improving sight without glasses: where to send for information, booklets, etc. Thank you much! Mrs. G. Crifasi, 3068 Wade Rd., Capac, Mich., 48014.

To my darling son: Thank you, Alex, for 18 precious years. Love, Mother.

I am looking for someone who can or will tell me or send me some seed of hops. I have inquired of several seed companies and get no help. Mrs. Clara Winstead, Rt. 5, Box 417, Manchester, Tenn., 37355.

Help wanted: Farm family desires teenage girf to assist with housekeeping, gardening and cooking. Experience appreciated but not cooking, experience appreciated but not construction of the second second second work, have good disposition, moval character (an be interesting, fur, worthwhite job for the right girl. For more details contact Mrs. Delme Plancake, Atwood, Kan., 67730, (913) 6226-9280.

Williard Hillhouse, where are you? Please write Robert Ely, 1311 Heather Circle, Riverdale, Ga. 30296

Attention: Boston, Concord, Montpelier, Providence, Springfield, Hartford and Montreal churches: Would like to tell my rhiends there that am happly settled now in Wichia, Kan. Am working as an electrical draftman at Cessan Arcraft and will be returning to Wichta State to take night course and finish up my engineering degree. Cal Smith, 514 S, Main, Apl. 5, Wichita, Kan. 6722C, (193) 265-0651.

To Charlie Chase: "Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things" (I Corinthians 13:7). I love you! Cathy.

I'm looking for anyone in the church involved in aircraft mechanics to have their opinions and views on work in that the Cooper, 1213 Judson Ave., Evanston, Iii., 60202.

John L Albright formerly of Pittsburgh inequal to the second second second dispiping in an end second second second second shipped out west somewhere — is this true? (I di ke to hear from you okay? Larry D, Melanson, 1109 Whitley SL, Cambridge (P), Ont., NSH 162.

Pretoria, South Africa, brethren: trying to locate Miss Christa Mueller, not associated with the Church, lastheard from in Pretoria. Il breisve, and she is a social worker traveniling around the country. Any detective types care to try this one outdress: Lable to contact me at the following durfess: Lable to contact med with file of Cambridge (P), Ont., N3H 1G2.

Cambridge (P), Ont., N3H 162.² the merg St. Dees anyone from Montreal or the Know-ton-Granby area know my family form when and mother are Camille and Jaan, and I have new sisters. We have lived in Ville St. Michel (Montreal) and Knowlton in the eastern formships, and my uncle owne Fage's IGA store (Montreal) and wincle owne Fage's IGA store fremember — I and my mother are in the Kitchener, Ont., church. Larry Melanson, 1109 Whitey St. Cambridge (P), Ont., N3H 102, Canada.

Would the Honses from the Pittsburgh. Pa., church please contact us. My husband's ancestors came originally from that area. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Honse, 2704 Hawthorne Dr., Bettendorf, Iowa, 52722.

venterraturn, 10We, 52722. White Church family in Rhodesia invites letters from members worldwide who may be interested in the situation here in southern Africa. We are also keen to hear how conditions in your country may reflect growing fulfilment of Bible prophecy. Peter Griffins, 23 Moffat St., North End, Bolawayo, Rhodesia.

Mrs. Mary Baxter of Jackson, N.J., Mrs. Jaeger and I heard you are leaving for Arizona soon. I wanted to write you befrort you left, but I lost your address. Call me at (201) 963-0386 collect, or write Dominic Mancini, 326 Clinton St., Hoboken, N.J., 07030.

ANOWERS TO PUZZLE ON PAGE 4 Hidden verse: Deutercomy 30:15 - Icali heaven and earth to record this day against you, Ital have set before you life and death, biessing and have set before you life and death, biessing and hy sed may tive: (A) Davd Sau, (B) etermity, (C) unleavened, (D) reschery, (E) eyes ears, (F) mouth of God, (K) ye thit, (L) and (L) entopath, nouth of God, (K) ye thit, (L) and hell, (N) idle thoughts, (O) right, (P) to find a fast cathr, (C) yearn.

Local church news wrap-up

Two Kinds of Parties

12

ANCHORAGE, Alaska — With spring in the air, 12 happy preschool-ers had a party April 4 that included games, songs, dancing, refresh-ments, puppet making and pottery painting. Three dances, the bunny hop, alley cat and hershuwal (an Israeli folk dance), were taught by 12-year-old Judy Stephens, a member of a local folk-dance group.

The pottery had been made by the children at an earlier party from native clay that had been dug at Earthquake Park before winter.

Also April 4, first through sixth graders of the Anchorage church met at the Bill Kraniches for a birdhouse-and-apron party. Each had been given six weeks to complete his project at home with the help of his parents. (The girls made aprons and the boys birdhouses.)

Each partygoer presented a project and spoke a few minutes about it Judges then picked out the outstand ing quality of each project and awarded ribbons and prizes

Birdhouse awards went to Chris Bolzern, best built; Mike Pickett, most practical; Danny Wegh, most original; Chad Dillon, best painted; and David Kranich, biggest. Apron awards went to Wendy Wegh, most difficult; Sammy Elledge, cutest; Robyn Lewis, most ambitious; Wendy Eckman, most colorful; Heather Lewis, most unusual; Carol Rolinski, most artistic; and Judy Rolinski, most practical. Sandra Kranich and Alice Wegh.

Buffalo Swim Meet

AMHERST, N.Y. - The Buffalo, N.Y., church was host of its second annual swim meet March 27, competing with teams from the Erie and Roch ster, N.Y., churches

The meet was at a high school here. Nine freestyle relay events based on age and sex, with four swimmers on each team, were held. A point system had been set up for each relay. The final score: Buffalo 59.

Rochester 51 and Erie 34. Randy Gilmore was voted the most valuable swimmer. He swam in three of the nine relay events. Beth Melchiorre of Buffalo did a synchronized water ballet to the theme from Mahogany. Buffalo got the trophy for the second straight year. Any team winning three years consecutively will keep the trophy. Ron Wlodyga.

Costume Party AUSTIN, Tex. — The Austin congregation put its imagination to use March 27 for a costume party with entertainment, dancing, an old-fashioned auction, games and prizes

Cakes, paintings and other items were auctioned to raise money for YOU and other church activities. Winners for the best-decorated cakes were Brenda Childers for her teddy-bear-shaped cake and Jean Patterson for her bicentennial-flag cake A raffle was held to select the nner of an oil painting by Jerry Carlow.

Winners of awards for costumes: • Children: Jason Albert, Elizabeth Childers, Aaron Davis and

Scott Talbott. · Youths: Ronda Ross and David

Beebo Adults: Mrs. Mary Childers,

women's division; Jerry Carlow and Danford Bryant, men's; and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Talbott, couple. Entertainment was a flute solo by Brenda Childers and a piano solo by

David Beebe, Jean Talbott. Fair Nets Fair Amount

BATON ROUGE, La. - The church here held a fun-night fair March 20 to raise money for the Work. Ten-cent tickets were sold to participate in cakewalks, darts, bingo, a fish pond, a football throw, ringtoss and a pistol range.

Arts and crafts, canned goods and Tupperware were sold. Then came the auction of everything that was left

The door prizes were an electronic calculator and two American flags. After a really fun time, the Baton uge church was able to send about $400 to headquarters. Wilson Grice.

Australian Square Dancing

BLACKHEATH, Australia Members of the church here and some visitors from Sydney spent a weekend here in the Blue Mountains March 20 and 21.

The first evening they met at the Festival Tabernacle for a lively family evening, which commenced with some square dancing.

Len Morris instructed and was caller.

Members there danced to music provided by Phil Plows, Peter Bateup and Robert Haanstra. After supper Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Elfversen organized a game called twister for the children. More square dancing followed.

The next day there were a barbecue, tennis and other activities.

Margaret Sheard Proverbs 31 Concept

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.

- March 11 was the date once again for the Woman's Club of the Colorado Springs and Walsenburg churches.

Herbert Magoon pastor discussed the differences in the woman who follows the Proverbs 31 total-woman concept as opposed to those who practice the "liberatedwoman concept.

Joan Herndon lectured on the importance of personal grooming, attitudes toward husband and family and especially the emotional pitfalls that can destroy and debilitate a tranquil mind

Refreshments were served by Betty Hudson, Elaine Johnson and Sue Peterson. T.J. Stewart.

Boys' Baskethall

COLUMBIA, S.C. - Boys basketball-tournament play was held here April 4. Greensboro, N.C., came in first; Jacksonville, N.C., the underdogs, with only six players, ame in second: Columbia came in third; East Columbia finished last.

Jacksonville beat East Columbia 41-6. Jeff Klaus was top scorer, with 20; Keith Trumble made 14.

In a game between Greensboro and Columbia, Greensboro came out on top 62-60 in a battle decided in overtime.

The first-place match was between Jacksonville and Greensboro. Jack-sonville dominated and was always in the lead. The final score Jacksonville 36, Greensboro 42. Jeff Klaus.

Cumberland Outing

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. — The church here held an outing at Cumberland Mountain State Park after the Sabbath April 3. Square dancing was the main event, and relay races were also featured. Some of the hardier braved the cool night by camping out and staying to play tennis Sunday morning. Nancy Gunnels.

Church History

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. - This church area conducted a bicentennial formal dance featuring the history of God's Church Feb 28 Slides were shown that depicted the beginning of God's Church up to the present. As David Brewer and Kent Henderson narrated the events, background music was played. Posters of the old Church of God News back to 1961 were displayed.

Corpus Christi was the eighth church raised up in the Philadelphia era of God's Church. Judy Laney.

Spring Fever

DA VENPORT, lowa — "Swing Into Spring" was the theme for a weekend of activities geared to the singles here on April 3 and 4. The singles in Davenport planned and did most of the work to stage an enjoyable weekend for singles in-vited from neighboring areas.

Blackhawk Hotel got everyone into the swing of things when Volney Lamb of radio station WQUA, songs and up-to-date rock balanced

"Spring Fever Madness." Patterned after the TV program Anything Goes, seven teams were formed to compete seven teams were torneed to compete in a series of games. These included throwing cotton balls, playing egg football, threading a needle and drawing a pig while blindfolded. Nora Wanamaker, 89, of Iowa City didn't drop a single bean, thereby taking first place in the jelly-bean relay.

The winning team for the day was the Maximums, with 66 points, made up of Rick Stanczak of Arlington Heights, Roger Schmidgall and Connie Wilcoxen of Peoria and Linda Link and Becki Hertz of Des Moines, Linda Miller,

Wide Range of Talent

DURANGO, Colo. - After Sabbath services and a smorgasbord dinner April 17, the church here had its first talent-fun show, under the direction of Louis Martinez with

E.C. Davis as master of ceremonies.

and senior citizens included a skit piano solos, guitar duets, singing, numbers on the viola, violin and harmonica and audience participa-

Developing Your Potential

EDMONTON, Alta. — The Edmonton North Spokesman Club held its semiannual ladies' night at Lake Eden Ski Resort March 27.

Many other church couples and widows also attended this dinner meeting. The table topics and speeches featured the theme of "developing your natural human potential." After the speeches a movie, Pack Your Own Chute, was featured. Elie Hofer, the overall director and pastor of the church, said the evening went smoothly and was a terrific success. Philip W. Shields.

Alaska Sings

people squeezed into the basement of

EKLUTNA, Alaska - Some 50

Homer.

in Israeli dancing. Sandra

The wide range of talent by youths

the Lennarth Fransson home for an Anchorage-church sing-along April 3. It was a hot time in cold Alaska, especially for those sitting next to the traditional barrel stove. The singing was led by Lawrence Summers, guitarist, accompanied by Olaf Frislie on the violin. Before snacks, entertainment continued with impromptu choral and dance groups. Elinor Fransson.

Lippy the Lovelorn

ENID, Okla. — The church here held a semiformal dance March 20 at the Holiday Inn.

Music was provided by a band from the Oklahoma City church.

NEW YORK MEET - These are some of the swimmers who took part in a March 27 swim meet sponsored by the Buffalo church. The Buffalo competitors won the contest for the second consecutive year. (See "Buffalo Swim Meet," this page.) [Photo by Bob Rodkey]

> Guests from Oklahoma City were also present.

A comedy skit depicted a bar-room scene from the old West. The actors were Ed Reed as Brave Bob the Bartender, Jackie Burns as Gruff Gracie the Barmaid, Randy Heidrich as Lippy the Lovelorn Cowboy, Kay Campbell as Frenchie the Frivilous Filly, Lee Campbell as Shakey Sam the Sheriff and Bill Gallagler as Sue the Sioux Indian. Bill Keesee

Citrus Suddenly Available

FINDLAY, Ohio - The squeeze was on March 23 to April 3, two weeks to sell Texas-grown oranges and grapefruits that suddenly became available thanks to, the Toledo church.

With the fruits provided, the members went to work producing still more fruits as they squeezed out $50 or the church fund through sales. Larry Knick.

$800 for the Work

FINDLAY, Ohio - Switching to afternoon services April 3, the church here held a potluck meal after church.

For dessert live entertainment was WRAP-UP, page 13)

TALENT SHOW - Beth Shelly, left, and Jack and Martha Reed show they have talent as they sing at a show that was part of a fair put on by Findlay members April 3. (See "$800 for the Work." this page.) [Photos by Howard Shelly) out the night. The next day, at Duck Creek Plaza, 40 people participated in is becoming more current, thanks to the help of you who contribute to this column. Our goal is to have writers send us reports of news events within a week after the events, and we're now only printing those that we receive within a month after the event.

The Nostalgia Sock Hop at the Moline, entertained and took charge of the dance. The mixture of '50s

To help cover all areas, we continue to ask that you keep your "Wrap-Up" brief. If photos will accompany your article, please check with firms offering 24-hour processing. Our address at the WN is Box 111, Big Sandy, Tex., 75755,

WE'RE SPEEDING UP

As you may have noticed, the "Wrap-Up" section of the WN

SOUTH AFRICAN SOCIAL - These members of the Soweto non-European church, Johannesburg, take time out to pose at a social Feb. 29. (See "South Africans Get Together," this page.)

clown, James Blythe, Ginger

Greenville Dance

GREENVILLE, S.C. - The church here had a dance and social juggling act, flute solo and songs.

Singers in Chicago

HINSDALE, Ill. — The Texas Ambassador Singers of Big Sandy entertained the Chicago-area breth ren April 10.

The singers started that afternoon on the Sabbath, by providing special music during services for the Chicago Southwest church (which Concago Southwest church (which meets here) and guests. Later that evening the Hinsdale Community House teemed with some 400 people who assembled to hear the group perform, under the direction of Ray Howard, A Bicen tennial Tribute and selections from composers such as Miklos Rozsa, Gershwin and Porter. Paul P. Dzing.

Cool Breeze Offset

a beautiful day for the first picnic of

A cool breeze was offset by activities such as horseshoes, washers and baseball. The women played baseball, while the men chose the less vigorous sports. The new Muse Park in Jackson provided plenty of activity for the younger set. Pat Wiseman.

South Africans Get Together

JOHANNESBURG, South Af

nca — Members of the Sowerd non-European church Feb. 29 got together at the Orlando Community Center. Also pres-ent were guests from the

Johannesburg church, Andre van Belkum of the Church Administration Department

Administration Department here and David Hulme, a local

Before lunch adults and teens played volleyball and other games, then everyone helped himself to a steak barbecue with salads and wine.

The afternoon was highlighted by the Barbra Streisand film For Pete'

Sake, organized by Mike Venish with the help of Dave Lees Elias

Pasadena Preparations

Springs, (Mo.) High school Civi Center was the site of a YOU "Pasadena, Here We Come Fun Show" April 4.

KANSASCITY Mo - The Blue

The show, designed to raise noney for the Kansas City Bombers

14-0 basketball team's trip to Pasadena for the YOU national finals, was emceed by Terry Mattson and included piano and vocal solos, dance groups and accordion playing.

Five-year-old Kathy Gieselma and Michelle Curry made the singing debuts, while Shaneen made their

- Members of the Soweto

the church here.

rica - elder

JACKSON, Tenn. - April 4 was Weaver.

Joan Jacques.

Wrap-up

(Continued from page 12) provided, emceed by pastor Der Diehl, who was aided by his 1-year old son Jeffrey. Kicking the program off was a bicentennial dance routine by Beth Shelly and Lori Kline; Mrs. Lynn Kline went sentimental with an accordion melody; Beth Shelly, assisted by her mother, Carol Shelly, at the piano reminded everyone to "Count Our Blessings"; Martha Reed warmed hearts with a medley for that special someone. Wrapping up the show was a performance of the Junior Choir, accompanied by John Holcomb on guitar and directed by Mrs. Shelly. Mr. Holcomb played "Wildwood Flower'' and "Country Road." Mr. Diehl announced the fair had produced an offering of $800 for God's Work Although all participated, it was a feather in the women's cap: Karen Diehl, assisted by other women, was in charge. Larry Knick.

First in '76

FORT WAYNE, Ind. -About 45 teens and young adults from this church area got together April 13 at the Summer Chase Clubhouse and indoor swimming pool for their first swim of the year. Raymond Dickey.

Ladies' Forum

FORT WORTH, Tex. - The Fort Worth Ladies' Forum met with Mrs. John Denton, deaconess and Ladies' Forum coordinator, opening the meeting. Gene Dale, local elder and guest speaker, lectured on sprouting seeds for table use.

In the last half of the meeting three judges (Mrs. Felix Heimberg, Mr. Dale and Mrs. Denton) sampled unleavened-bread, cake, cookie and cracker entries brought by the ladi

Cash prizes were awarded to Mrs. Elwood Skaggs for her cookies and Mrs. James Riley for her crackers. Ladies who had made the arngements were Mrs. Wiley Brisco, rs. Newton Baker, Mrs. Larry Mrs Brookreson, Mrs. Edwin Bubert and Mrs. Bill Cadenhead. Mr. and Mrs. HC Saline.

Swing Into Spring

GADSDEN, Alabama - A very successful first annual "Swing Into Spring" fashion show was sponsored the Gadsden-Anniston Ladies Club and directed by Renee Phillips assisted by Marge Ashley and Rennie Mixon, April 10.

Guests enjoyed a potluck supper before the show. When the dishes were cleared and the stage was set. emcee Kim Mixon introduced the first of three soloists. "The Most Beautiful Girl in the World" was Beautiful Gin in the world was sung by Ginger Weaver, "Theme from Mahogany" was sung by Nena Wyatt; a John Denver song was vocalized by Butch Richards, who accompanied himself on the guitar.

Bobbie Hodges provided accompaniment and background music on the piano during the show.

The 26 models wore impressive handiwork that included leis re suits for boys, evening wear, street-length

Lucas, 18, went back to 1920 and the dresses and even a fully lined coat-and-hat ensemble. The children were delighted by a Charleston

A band, Melody, consisting of members, accompanied most of the performances.

the end of the show the basketball players and cheerleaders were announced, along with Richard DeBerry and Ann Gieselman, their coaches.

were here March 13, using the bicentennial as the theme. A band from the Columbia, S.C. To round off the evening, the Kansas City Chorale was joined by the entire audience as the words to church provided music for dancing, and some of the local talent provided "California Here We Come" projected on the walls. Bordet Lucas. entertainment in the form of a skit,

Oklahomans Honored

LAWTON, Okla. - The brethren in this area headed for the Elks lodge April 4 for dinner and dancing and to honor graduating members of the Spokesman Club

The Oklahoma City church band had traveled the 100 miles to play for the occasion. Donald Mitchell and Jack Cartwright received certificates of graduation from Joe Dobson, church pastor. Ethel Register.

Smorgasbord and Dance

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — The church here had its annual formal dinner-dance at the Park Plaza Motor Inn March 27. Cocktail hour was from 7 to 7:45; the meal was smorgasbord style. After the meal the Ron Langlo

Music Makers combo from Calgary South church provided the music For entertainment, a girls' chorus of Joan VanWaardhuizen, Bonnie Phillips, Gertrude Pohl, Dianne Reid and Jan Peterson sang. Cecil Maranville, minister, and Larry Madge provided interval skits that left people in stitches. Olive Watson, 76, sang "Patterain." Fred Reid read an essay on the futility of war. A skit of pianists Ferrante and Teicher was performed by Anita Swanson and Jan Peterson. Then Evelyn Wej owicz and Jay Tomkins tap-danced. Jan Peterson.

Moneymaking Projects

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. - On three Sundays — the last one April 4 — The Lethbridge Spokesman Club cleaned 11,300 mortar-packed bricks at 4 cents each to sponsor two young people's trips to the YOU Summer Educational Program at Orr, Minn.

shopping center. Proceeds will be used for lectures and campaigns.

$270

batteries, adding $60. Jan Peterson.

Lecture Packs Them In

MANCHESTER, England - As part of the Plain Truth lecture series being held in many of the major towns and cities throughout Britain, Frank Brown, director of the Work in Britain, spoke on two evenings, March 22 and 23, at the Grand Hotel here

On both occasions the lecture

oom was filled to capacity and extra chairs had to be brought in to accommodate the large turnout of 106 people who attended each evening. New people accounted for 59 the first night and 64 the second.

The vast majority of newcomers lingered for some time after the meetings to pick up literature from a display and to ask questions of local members. All seemed to like what they had heard.

The first of a series of three follow-up lectures has already been given by local pastor Barry Bourne, who was encouraged by the return of 44 new people. John Melrose.

Fair and Talent Show

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — The Normandale Community Center was the site of a fair and talent show April The fair included 12 booths cakewalk, weight guessing (by pastor Paul Kurts) and a tremendously successful country store. The talent show featured several vocal solos and duets and skits and an impersonation of Richard Nixon by Jack Sheppard $300 was cleared of Overall which $100 was raised by the country store. More than 25 percent is to be sent to headquarters. Mike and Debbi Kelley. A Start

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - The

nament at Santa Ana High School March 28 and April 4. The tournament comprised eight teams whose members are too young or inexperienced to compete in the

FASHIONS SHOWN - These women (from left, Faye Vancak, Beth Watson, Irene Northrip, Mary House, Carol Miller and Carrie Payton) were part of a fashion show presented by the Lake of the Ozarks Women's Club April 4. (See "Being a Girl," page 14.) [Photo by David Taylor]

Nashville-Dixon Choir (from the Nashville East and West churches) made its debut during Sabbath services here April 17. Church pastor Tony Hammer asked the congregation: "How was that for a start?" The answer came in resounding applause. Director of the 30 singers is Van Atta, a student at Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro, who will graduate this month with a B.M. degree in piano. The choir has practiced for nearly six months.

In other news, the Graduate Club met April 10, and a teen dance was held on April 11 at the student center of Vol State Community College,

The semiformal affair was well attended, with music provided by Bobby Spicher and his band. The teens look forward to a trip to

Big Sandy in June following a recent orange-grapefruit sale, and tentative plans are to buy a bus to transport the other church activities, Mr. Hammer

April 4, some 150 years after the disappearance of the renowned French pirate Jean Laffite, the New with no sign of pirates around, the young adults got down to business with a full day of fellowship and games, including Frisbee throwing, olleyball football tennis, kite flying and eating barbecued goodies. The club is headed by two recent Ambassador grads, Sylvester Wil-

Orleans Young Adults' Club con-verged on Laffite's old stomping nds, in Crown Point, La.

son, president, and Fritz Herrmann, vice president, who are assisted by a planning committee. Sylvester Wilson.

Meal and Movie

NORFOLK, Va. - After Sab-bath services April 3 the Tidewater Unity Woman's Club served a meal to about 218 members and guests.

Norwalk Sponsors YOU Tourney

A movie about Jerusalem was shown afterwards. Louise Powell.

NORWALK, Calif. — The Long Beach Lions held off a furious last-quarter surge by the Imperial (Pasadena) Bruins for a thrilling 63-60 victory in the championship game of the Southern California District B Division basketball tour-national YOU basketball tournament tournament director, pointed out that many of the teams are playing together for the first time this season.

A number of churches have only one or two boys above 16 years of age.

"This event gave those youngsters an opportunity to participate in tournament-style competition," Mr.

In first-round action Imperial got by Santa Ana 53-45, Glendora downed Fontana 41-30, Long Beach stopped tourney-host Norwalk, 61-54, and Glendale romped past

San Diego 51-19. The finalists both had easy semifinal matches. Imperial over-whelmed Glendora 64-32, and Long Beach coasted to a 55-37 win over Glendale, setting the stage for the

At the half Imperial led 32-28. Long Beach took charge early in the third quarter on the accurate shooting of guard Mark Hayes, who hit on five of five long jump shots the period, and led 52-44 by the end of the frame. Led by most valuable player Dave Brantley and playmaker Greg Neller, the Bruins fought back in the fourth stanza only to fall short as the Holbrooks said.

Pasadena. Larry Holbrooks,

Gallatin.

teens on such trips and be used for indicated. Everett Corbin.

Laffite's Stomping Grounds

NEW ORLEANS, La. - On

The bricks were provided by deacon Hans Bohnert, who has been demolishing some old buildings.

Then, on April 6, the ambitious and talented church ladies sold arts and crafts and baked goods at a

Thus far the proceeds are about

A few Spokesman Club members also collected bottles and used

(Continued from page 13) the all-tournament team were Impe rial teammate Brent Bailey, Darrel Maxwell and Tony Carter of tourna-ment victor Long Beach, Mark Green and Carl Johnson of Glendale, Joe Mendoza and Moses Jacoba of Glendora, Mike Frey of Fontana and Larry Ortiz of Norwalk.

The Norwalk team was awarded the sportsmanship trophy. Gary Mysels.

Fascinating Classes

OLATHE, Kan. - A number of the women from Kansas City South have enrolled in "Fascinating Womanhood" classes taught by Womanhood'' classes taught Louise Smothers. Basic class ma rial is the book Fascinating Womanhood, along with a work-book, both by Helen Andelin.

Two eight-week classes have been completed, and a graduate class is beginning monthly. Two more eight-week classes will start soon. Louise Smothers.

Being a Girl

OSAGE BEACH, Mo. Enjoy Being a Girl'' was the theme of a Women's Club fashion show April 4 at the Lake of the Ozarks Festival Administration Building The auditorium had been deco-rated to fit the theme.

Mrs. Ruby Cuffel and Don Edwards won the door prizes, $10 gift certificates.

Preteens, teens and women par-ticipated as models in the show, which featured sportswear, skirts, dresses and long dresses. Between sections entertainment was by the models and other church there. Let Createfield lend exist.

talent. Les Greenfield played a violin solo, accompanied by Mrs. Vinton Nance on the piano. Lynetta Pline played a flute solo, accompanied by Monica Grimes. Millie Slagle sang a solo, "I Enjoy Being a Girl," accompanied by Charlene Taylor. Mary E. House

Them Thar Hills

ROANOKE, Va. - Orchard Hill ROANOKE, va. — Orchard Hill Farm's apple-packing house shel-tered the church here the night of March 21 as members rallied to devour a potluck meal of hot dogs, chili and apple cider. After the meal folks squared off to an evening of western and hoedown square dancing. The little folks enjoyed movies. Others learned why Orchard Hill was so named as rambunct hayrides proceeded through hills." Duane Long. .nem than

Coloring Contest

ROCHESTER, N.Y. - Church pastor Donald Samples presented ribbons to winners of a coloring contest here April 12. Children of the church up to 12 years of age were eligible to compete. Each of three age-groups were given a copy of the same picture to color.

Receiving blue first-place ribbons were Sonya Bruner, Kiersten Spraker and Todd Fenton. Second-place red ribbons went to Carissa Spraker, Stacy Bruner and Allan Hannold. Jake Hannold.

Teens Place in City League

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The teen basketball season here ended March 23 and 24 in a city-league play-off at a Salvation Army gym.

The teens, in their second year as a church team, came up with a third-place trophy for the tourney. High-point men were David Nolan. with 21 points; Jeff Dodson, with 15; and Eric Jones, with 14. Coach Gary Koerner was pleased with the final score: Worldwide Church of God 62, St. Paul's Catholic Church 35. Lavene L. Vorel.

New Church Band

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - The first public appearance of the new church band took place April 17 when it played for the annual semiformal dance at Rancho Bernardo Inn, near Escondido

A total of 144 members from both churches enjoyed the evening tremendously, according to a report by church pastor James Friddle.

The band's talent and versatility were demonstrated as it produced music for polkas, waltzes, fox-trots and rock.

During intermission was entertainment furnished by Margie Frid-dle dressed as a charwoman singing "I'm So Pretty"; a country ballad, "Old Dogs and Children and Watermelon Wine," by Paul Smith, guitar, Dan Edelman, with a vocal rendition of "If I Were a Rich Man"; and "Mr. Bojangles," sung by Virgil Gordon.

Jim Walker of Escondido is band leader and plays lead guitar. The rest of the band are Rhonda Edelman, bass guitar; Margaret Walker, piano; Jim Ivicevic, saxophone; and Greg Edelman, drums,

The group will perform at the annual church variety show, scheduled for May 24. Susan Karoska.

20th for Shreveport

SHREVEPORT, La. — It was 20 to that use years ago March 10 that me Shreveport church was begun. The congregation first m in the northern-Louisiana town ... Minden. James Friddle was the first minister. Several years later the church was moved here.

In recognition of the anniversary, Sabbath services were held on March 6 in the Minden Civic Center. Sermons were given by Bill Brad-ford, present pastor, and Leroy Neff, a former pastor who is now business manager at Ambassador College

Big Sandy. During the noon break a buffet luncheon prepared by the ladies was served. Many members who have since moved from the area returned for the day. The Shreveport brethren were also joined by the Texarkana, Ark., and Monroe, La., churches.

Helping to coordinate the day's activities were Dave Ogwyn, Vesta Montgomery, Marge Dostal and Paul and Becky Burks

The day was brought to a conclusion with an anniversary dance at the 40 & 8 Club in Shreveport. Gladys McDowell had created an anniversary cake for the occasion. Judy Walker.

Outstanding Outfits

SPOKANE, Wash. — The teen-agers here were host of a costume party March 20 and invited the young adults for the occasion. There were dancing, music and games, with refres The highlight of the evening was the presentation of prizes for outstanding outfits. The most unusual costumes were worn by Jena Nellis as Wonder Woman and Don Kottke and Tom Robinson with makeup masks.

The most humorous girl was Crystal Jager as the Rotund Painter, and Mart Wineinger had the most unusual guy's costume; he came as an outhouse. The best-dressed girl was Laree Graybeal as Cinderella, and Doug Graybeal, in an Uncle Sam costume, was best for the guys. Dan Deininger and his wife Valerie were in charge of the party. Deininger is YOU director Connie Payton and Dave Robinson.

From Fruit to Wheels

SPOKANE, Wash. - YOU teens here turned 10 tons of grapefruit and oranges into a profitable venture during their spring vacation, April 3 to 11.

The activities began with teens taking orders for cases of the fruit. Then, the evening of April 3, the final planning-and-sign-making ses-sion was held. Early on April 4 the big undertaking was started with the unloading of the 1,000 boxes that arrived from the Crest Fruit Co. in Texas. The fruit was redistributed to six street corners in this area.

Busy intersections were covered busy intersections were covered by some 50 teens plus some energetic parents, all under the direction of YOU director for Spokane Dan Deininger. The goal of the project was to raise enough money to purchase a used 67-passenger school bus for YOU activities.

On April 11 all who helped sell went to the Clayton Graybeal home for pizza, pop, salad and ice cream. Gina Nellis and Verne Enos.

Truckload of Fruit TOLEDO, Ohio - Toledo and

BACK TO SCHOOL -- These women from Kansas City South are enrolled in "Fascinating Womanhood" classes. Standing, from left, are Effie Minton, Mary Brooks, Patty Gilley, Janett Owens, Jean Hornor, Kay Keener, Garlena Curtis, Trudy Wittmeyer and Phyllis Gerfen. Seated are Jo Ann Bergmann, Louise Smothers (instructor) and Elizabeth Kuhn. Not shown are Mary Stephenson, Elizabeth Stump, Elsie Fry, Imogene Howard, Sharon Owens, Sheryl Wempe, Linda Hopkins, Gini Summers and Glenda Brown. (See "Fascinating Classes," this page.) [Photo by Ken Murphy]

ST. PETE TEAM - St. Petersburg teens placed third in city-league basketball competition in March. The players are, standing, Dulvin Lewis, David Dodson, Jeff Dodson and Doug McCall and, kneeling, Dan McCall, David Nolan and Eric Jones. (See "Teens Place in City League," this page.) [Photo by Lavene L. Vorel]

Findlay members sold 1,850 boxes of Texas oranges and grapefruits in one week. After an offering is sent to Pasadena, the remainder of the proce ds from the safe will be used to sponsor church activities.

"Vhen the Toledo-bound truck ar. ved early on March 28, many helpers made light work of unloading and distributing the fruit. Gloria Hoskinson.

That's Entertainment

TORONTO, Ont. — "That's Entertainment" was the theme of a regional teen dance here April 3. The dance was in an auditorium Toronto's largest shopping mall, Square One, and was sponsored by teens from Toronto West, Central and East for all surrounding church Records were spun by the pastor at Toronto West, a former disc jockey, Harry Walker. The master of ceremonies, Gary Moore, started it all with a snowball dance, led by Rita and Fabian Jardim. For special and Fabian Jardim. For special entertainment Danny McBride played and sang.

Albums were given to lucky ticket holders. The grand prize was a clock radio, won by Jeff Miller of Kitchener. About 180 attended. Rita Jardim.

Youth Day

UNIONTOWN, Pa. — The Clarksburg, W.Va., and Uniontown churches had a Youth Day April 17. The youths took over the roll count. ushered, played the piano, handed out song books and parked cars. The sermon and sermonette were also directed to young people. The sermon, given by David Johnson, pastor, concerned problems of teens in the Church. He incorporated into his sermon material from papers the teens had written. Janet Richards.

Bicentennial Dresses

WARNER ROBINS, Ga. wARNER KOBINS, 0a. — A fashion show featuring clothing made by the ladies of the Warner Robins and Columbus, Ga., churches was the highlight of the day April 4 as more than 20 outfits were podeled. modeled, ranging gentleman's denim leisi from gentleman's denim leisure suit to frilly, full-length bicentennial dresses. There was also a handicraft display with work in needlepoint, macrame, crocheting and flower arranging. Mike Henley.

Club Promotes AICF

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - The Spokesman Club here promotes the Ambassador International Cultural Foundation by giving free subscrip-tions to Human Potential magazine to prominent citizens in this area. So far, all of those contacted have accepted the gifts.

Those who will receive Human Potential include Jack Hunter (the mayor of Youngstown and a con-gressional candidate), editors of the three area daily newspapers, the local director of the United Appeal, the president of Youngstown State University and the Warren Public Library. Larry Rees, assistant librarian for the library, liked the appearance of the magazine. He said he would prominently display it. Jim Guy and Ralph Orr

180 brothers and sisters at latest count

By Roger Fakhoury PASADENA — For John Spencer Chikeziem Archinihu, life at Ambassador College here is almost the same home in Nigeria. "I have about 180 brothers and as ho sisters, and we keep on increasing," he smiled. "Last month I got a letter from home that informed me that six more brothers and sisters were added to my family. Since we are continually growing, no one can

4. . .

ONE OF 180 OR SO - John Spencer, here at work on campus, chose Ambassador College at random. He left at least 180 brothers and sisters in his native Nigeria. [Photo by Rick Stodola]

Ohio elder conducts Passover behind bars

By Kenneth W. Christopher CHILLICOTHE, Ohio — A little before sunset April 13, I sat down with a small elect — possibly unique — group of people at Chillicothe

The writer, a local elder in the Portsmouth, Ohio, church, is employed as director of teaching at Chillicothe Correctional Insti-

Correctional Institute. It was my privilege to conduct what may be the first Passover service in a prison for both inmates and employees in this age of the Church of God as two prisoners and one employee partook of the Passover.

The service lasted about an hour, and inmates and employees sat down together as equals, not as inmates and supervisors, but as brothers in Christ. The inmates had looked forward to

Obituaries

100

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. - Mary MOUNT POCONO, Pa. — Mary Margaret Creasy, 80, died at her home of ar heart attack April 6. She had been a member since 1967. Surviving are a daughter, two sisters and a brother. Mrs. Creasy's husband, Stanley L., 82, had died one day earlier of a stroke.

He was not a member.

The Creasys were married 62 years. Five grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren also survive.

OZARK, Ark. — Farl Edward Clay, 82, died at his home here April 2 after a brief illness. He is survived by his wife, Bertha Seratt Clay.

Seratt Clay. Mr. Clay, with his wife, was a member of the Russellville, Ark., church. They previously had attended the Fort Smith, Ark., church for several years. Mr. Clay was a retired farmer and a veteran of World War I.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. -- Leonard

Haley, 71, a member here, died in a hospital March 9. Mr. Haley is survived by his wife, also a member, two sons; and one daughter.

SAN JOSE, Calif. — James Walker died March 30 of cancer. He had been a member of the Church 12 years. Mr. Walker is survived by his wife Grace; a daughter, Leah Jones; a son, James Jr.; five grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. Mr. Walker was a native of California and a member of the San Jose church.

this opportunity ever since I had conducted the first weekly Bible study there a few months ago, the first in a series of studies open to all nterested prisoners

At first the studies were on Wednesday evenings in a vestibule that provided no privacy. When it became impossible for those who had loyally attended each session to meet on Wednesday evenings, the services were moved to the prison's Protes-tant chapel and held at 8 a.m. Saturdays.

The chapel provides a better setting, and the men — and I — are fresh and wide awake after a night's rest. Other than a Catholic mass conducted in the nearby Catholic chapel, no one else is in the building at that hour, since the majority of those attending have never heard of Worldwide Church of God or either of the Armstrongs. But some are subscribers to The Plain Truth and The Good News.

At the beginning of each service, those attending, usually about nine inmates, are politely told that this is a voluntary service that will be conduct-ed from 8 to 9:30 a.m. and that they will be given a chance to ask questions at the end of the meeting. I tell the men they are free to leave any time. However, no one has left early except those who have had to leave except those who have had to leave for work assignments. This statement is necessary be-cause many of these men are "longtimers," and they can re-member years ago when they were required to attend a church service every Sunday morning. The men's questions are deep and thought provoking. The depth of some of their questions might put a few Church members to shame. Some of the questions sometimes become the topics for the next week's study.

Officially the Bible study is concluded at 9:30, because the chapel must be vacated for another group. But the men continue to talk and ask questions outside after services.

These studies are inspiring to me because of the prisoners' en-thusiasm. At times they seem to hang onto every word said. The prayers of WN readers are requested for their continued suc-

keep track of the actual number." John Spencer (the shortened name the campus students have given him) is an outgoing, exuberant 20-year-old freshman from the city of Aba (population 152,000), in southwest-ern Nigeria.

His initial appearance is impres sive. While only 5 feet ½ inch tall, his smile and athletic build make the difference.

John comes from a wealthy family. His father has a unique position in Aba: He is the ruler.

Not Much Competition

"My father does not have much competition for his post. He is the natural ruler. When he dies the eldest son will take over."

What position did John hold in the family, and could he ever be made ruler of Aba? "No," he laughed, "I am not even within the first 100. My oldest brother is heir to the throne, and he is about 55. John's father, besides being ruler of Aba, is a prosperous farmer who owns a vast amount of farmland. The family cultivates yams and melons, maintains banana and pineapple plantations and supervises a poultry farm

What type of unity could there be what type of unity could there be in so large a family? "Contrary to what you might think, we are a very close family. The family's households encompass an area as large as this campus. My father's castle is located in the center and each one of his 25 wives has her own house in which she and her children live.

Three Soccer Teams

"People don't realize that there are many advantages with our large family. We have three soccer teams just among ourselves." Why did he decide to come to AC?

Why did he decide to come to AC? "It is really an interesting story," John mused. "I knew nothing about Ambassador College or the Worldwide Church of God." Early in life John decided to study in the United States. Many of his brothers and sisters had gone to other countries --- West Germany, Britain,

France - but none had ever gone to America

"So I prepared myself to play the ambassadorial role of representing my family and country, especially when I learned that J would be the only person from Africa here this vear

When I got the catalog from the College Entrance Examination Board, I looked through the list of colleges in California. I chose Ambassador College at random and sent in my application form." Since arriving, John has had nothing but praise for Ambassador. "I was initially impressed with the atmosphere. The people are friendly and helpful.''

John plans to stay four years and then hopes to go on to study medicine, specifically gynecology and obstetrics. He also hopes to practice medicine here for a year, then return to Nigeria. He would like to establish a hospital in Aba. John talked of the events that led to his attending church

Church on Saturday

"I knew nothing of the Church before I came," John said. "I arrived on a Sunday and by Monday I found out that church here is held on Saturday." How did he react when he found out about the Sabbath?

"It was a surprise to me," John reflected, "and very hard to accept at first. I had always considered first. I had always considered Saturday to be a workday, and it was difficult to change my thought pattern. It wasn't until I registered for the freshman Bible class before I realized how much I needed to know about this Church and their beliefs." So, after nearly three weeks on campus, John entered the Ambassador Auditorium for Sabbath services for the first time. "I was initially impressed with the majestic aura the Auditorium radiated. I sensed an atmosphere which seemed conducive to worship ing God. My church back home was a cathedral, and very different."

But what really impressed John was the message he heard that day. "After church I went straight

TIGHT SQUEEZE — Cincinnati elder Dave Pack, center, may have the height advantage (he stands 6 feet 7), but it looks like the opposition's Lenvil Elliott (No. 36), running back for the Cincinnati Bengals football team, and but it looks like the opposition's Lerwil Elliott (No. 36), running back for the Cincinnalt Bengals tootball team, and his teammate, Jim LeClair (defensive linebacker), might muscle him out of the rebound during a YOU fund-raising game between the Bengals and a team sponsored by the Cincinnati North and West churches March 27. To represent the Bengals were Elliott, LeClair; Bill Kollar, defensive tackle; Dave Green, kicker; Al Beauchamp, defensive linebacker; and Hufus Mayes, offensive tackle. The church-sponsored team was aided by Fred Dierking, former University of Cincinnati player; and two Church members, Pack and Ralph Weis. The final score was 103-76 in favor of the church-sponsored team. Free tickets had been given to three orphanages and a home for wayward boys. Dayton and Cincinnati YOU cheerleaders aided both teams. The venture netted $1,500, which went into YOU coffers. [Photo by Mike Lockard] home. It really got me thinking about the things I had heard. I realized that there was something substantial to the message.

15

"I am not yet baptized, but if it is God's will, which I'm sure it is, I plan to be baptized very soon." Next year three of John's older brothers plan to come to AC. I asked John if they are excited about coming to America. "More than just America," John commented: "Ambassador College. They have been interested ever sin I arrived.

"You see, I also have been playing the ambassadorial role for Ambassador College.''

PASADENA - A special Sab PASADENA — A special Sab-bath brunch was attended by 600 Ambassador students in honor of Herbert W. Armstrong May 8. During the meal, the students presented Mr. Armstrong an engraved silver bowl, a replica of a bowl made by Paul Revere for the Massachusetts State Assembly.

BURLEIGH HEADS, Australia Australia's regional director Dennis Luker and director of Plain Truth lectures John Halford returned here last week from a tour of Southeast Asia. Mr. Halford had left at the

Mr. Halford had left at the beginning of April; Mr. Luker had joined him in Kuala Lumpur immediately after Passover. Mr. Halford said: "The trip was very profitable in every way. We were able to visit most of our Asian members in their homes. We hope that this will help us to serve them more effectively in the future."

* * *

PASADENA — Ambassador Col-lege announced that its summer program at the archaeological exca-vations in Jerusalem will be open to six undergraduate students of the campus here and six from Big Sandy this summer.

All applicants must have success fully completed at least one year of Old Testament Survey or its equivalent.

In addition to working at the dig site, the students will take classes and attend lectures provided by Hebrew university (which cosponsors the dig with Ambassador) in Jerusalem. The students accepted will be given a scholarship by the Ambas-sador International Cultural Foundation covering air fare, room, board and tuition for the summer.

* * *

PASADENA - The senior classes of Ambassador College here and in Big Sandy took their tradititional annual trips as the school year drew to a close

More than 70 Pasadena seniors spent four days, April 22 to 25, traveling along the California coast in two buses, stopping at San Simeon and Carmel and ending up in San Francisco.

The Big Sandy group spent six days in Mexico City, meeting with the Mexico City brethren for Sabbath services and touring the city and environs April 30 to May 5.

Pasadena Senior Class President Bill Guthy said, "I felt our senior-class trip was a great way to complete our four years together." Big Sandy's Senior Class Presi-dent Mike Hale commented: "It was quite a memorable and eye-opening trip. I hope the tradition of the senior trip is continued."

* * *

PASADENA — Operations of The Plain Truth's Washington, D.C., office, located in the National Press Building and manned by Henry Sturcke, will be terminated at the end of this month, according to Plain Truth managing editor Art

Ferdig. Correspondent Sturcke, who served as office manager, researcher, messenger, public-relations director, photographer, writer and tour guide on behalf of The Plain Truth, will remain in the Washington area, where he hopes to find employment. A recent change in the magazine to a more religious format brought about the closing of the office, Mr. Ferdig said. In other developments Mr. Ferdia announced the appointment of Jack Martin to circulation manager worldwide for The Plain Truth Mr

JACK MARTIN

Martin is also circulation manager for Human Potential magazine * * *

PASADENA - The Ambassador College Chorale, cooperating with the Music Department, presented a spring concert May 2 in the Auditorium. After a first-half presentation by the Pasadena Community Orchestra, the chorale performed two pieces, "Whitman" and "Aria," dedic ed to the poet Walt Whitman. "Whitman," narrated by Garner Ted Armstrong, was presented with members of the Ambassador College Dance Theater under the direction and chorocoraphy of Christs Long Auditorium.

and choreography of Christa Long, wife of Dr. R. Gerry Long, chairman of the Music Department.

* * *

PASADENA — May 2 was a day of fun in the sun for 300 Ambassador students at a beach party sponsored by the freshman class. Will Rogers State Beach, on the coast near Santa Monica, provided perfect weather as students swam, sunned, surfed and competed in volleyball and tugs-of-

Roger Fakhoury, freshman-class president and party coordinator, commented: "Many freshmen de-voted a lot of time to insure the overwhelming success that it was. I felt that it was an excellent way to wrap up the school year.'

The WORLDWIDE NEWS

* * *

PASADENA -Baritone Herman Prey presented Franz Schubert's Die Winterreise cycle April 27 in the Auditorium, Hailed as April 27 in the Auditorium. Hailed as a foremost interpreter of the German Lied, Berlin-born Prey has per-formed in New York, Rome, London, Vienna, Berlin, Munich, Moscow and Tokyo.

PASADENA — The Netherlands Chamber Orchestra, under the direc-tion of Szymon Goldberg, presented "bicentennial salute to the United States'' May 4 in the Auditorium. "Since its founding in 1955, the performances have grown extraordinary rapidity," accor to Mr. Goldberg. with according The orchestra performed concerti of Haydn, Handel and Schoenberg.

* * *

BIG SANDY — The Texas campus of Ambassador College was host of its second annual agricultural field day May 6. Guest speakers included actress and health-food advocate Gloria Swanson and Dr. Leo Roy, a medical doctor and researcher from Toronto, Ont. The field day was designed to encourage research in health and nutrition and inform farmers and ranchers of progress in these areas.

GLORIA SWANSON

NEW STUDENT LEADERS - Big Sandy Ambassador College student officers for the 1976-77 school year were recently announced. Standing, from left, are Student Body President Steve Schantz, Student Body Vice President Lloyd Garrett and Senior Class President Jeff Wahlen. Seated are Carol Allen, overall women's-club president, left, and overall women's coordinator Anne Wilcox. [Photo by Scott Moss]

PASADENA — The Boston Symphony Chamber Players per-formed selections from Mozart,

Beethoven and Stravinsky in the Auditorium May 5. The Chamber Players, composed of musicians from the Boston Symphony Orchestra, received the Grammy for the year's outstand-ing chamber music. The ensemble has been praised for its "rich and suave" tone by the New York Times.

Australia airs telecast for first time

(Continued from page 1) of the reach of the Australian Work, Mr. Halford said. Since Australia uses a system in taping and transmitting television broadcasts

that differs from the U.S. system, videotapes produced in America are incompatible with the Australian system, and the cost of transferring e taped programs to film has been

"But recent technical break-throughs have made possible a machine that transfers the American videotapes to the local system," Mr. Halford said. "There are only a few such machines existing in the world at the moment. One of them happens to be just 10 minutes' drive from the Pasadena campus.'' Another breakthrough was timely.

prohibitive

Only part of the cost for the Australian program will go for air time; the largest part is the local production cost: editing the program and altering the commercials so the program meets local regulations.

"Normally the Broadcasting Con-trol Board insist that any commercial inserts must have at least 80 percent Australian-produced content," ac-cording to Mr. Halford. "In an unprecedented move, the Control Board has permitted the use of the programs as produced, providing all essential editing is done in Australia. "This generous concession has saved the Work many thousands of dollars.'

After seeing the first telecast, Australian regional director Dennis Luker said:

"It was absolutely terrific. Every-"It was absolutely terrific. Every-thing went well, and our media agents, Milwyn Associates, did a beautiful job of local editing. I am very pleased." Once the first 13-week series is under way in Sydney, plans are to extend the programs to Melbourne and the other major cities of the country

TOURING - Big Sandy Ambassador seniors wander through ancient ruins in Mexico with the Pyramid of the Sun in the background. (See "Grapevine," this page.) [Photo by Scott Ashley]

